CHIEFS OWNER

LAMAR HUNT

much looking forward to it."

Challenges, be they in the world of football or any of the facets of business in which Hunt is involved, are nothing new to the 47-year-old Texan. His positive attitude and leadership have been an integral part of the pro football picture the last 20 years.

Hunt in 1959 formed the American Football League and served as its first president. After winning the AFL championship in 1962, his franchise, the Dallas Texans, moved to Kansas City prior to the 1963 season. In the 10 seasons of the AFL's existence, the Texans/Chiefs were the league's most successful franchise. The team won three AFL championships, played in two Super Bowls and won the world championship with a victory in Super Bowl IV.

Hunt's initial venture into organized sports was as a player. He was a reserve end at Southern Methodist University. Since his entrance into professional football, Hunt has been active on other sporting fronts as well. He organized and coordinated the formation and development of World Championship Tennis and, through WCT, helped bring this sport to the international prominence it now enjoys. He formed the Dallas Tornado, one of the North American Soccer League's consistent winners. And he is one of the founding owners and retains a small financial interest in the NBA Chicago Bulls.

Indicative of Hunt's stature within the American Football League is the fact he was the first AFL figure to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. That honor was bestowed on Hunt in 1972. At those enshrinement ceremonies, Hunt's close friend, New England Patriots owner Bill Sullivan, described him as "the architect, designer and builder of an impossible dream."

In addition to his numerous business commitments, Hunt has long been active in civic and community affairs, both in Kansas City and Dallas. He serves on the national board of trustees of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, is a member of the board of directors of NFL Charities and serves on the board of trustees of the Great Midwest Corporation and on the board of directors of the National Parks Foundation.

Hunt and his wife, Norma, have four children, Lamar, Jr., 23 this fall; Sharron, 21; Clark, 14; and Daniel, who will be three years old November 21.

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS PRESIDENT

JACK STEADMAN

In 1979, Kansas City Chiefs president Jack Steadman embarks upon his 20th professional football season as this original American Football League franchise celebrates its 20th anniversary and the 10th anniversary of the Chiefs Super Bowl IV triumph over the Minnesota Vikings.

Steadman joined Lamar Hunt's AFL Dallas Texans as general manager and head of the team's administrative staff in November of 1960, the initial campaign of the AFL. He was promoted to executive vice president and general manager of the Chiefs in 1966 and in August of 1976 was named president of the Kansas City Chiefs in charge of all operations.

Considered one of pro football's outstanding administrators, Steadman has seen the franchise achieve two Super Bowl appearances, capture three AFL championships, make a successful transition in the team's transfer from Dallas to Kansas City and its move into one of pro football's most magnificent stadiums, Arrowhead.

This year, Steadman continues to coordinate the Chiefs newest commitment—"to bring the professional football fans in Kansas City another Super Bowl championship." Steadman was the key figure in the reorganization of the Chiefs in 1975 when the team changed to a very sophisticated talent and scouting program to initiate the rebuilding of a former champion. He also joined Hunt and general manager Jim Schaaf in the search to select Marv Levy as the Chiefs head coach following the 1977 season.

"I feel confident we will once again be a championship contender," said Steadman during the 1978 season. "I feel we are on the right track to not only bring a championship contender to Kansas City but an exciting product as well. Consistency is the key to long-range success. Our goal is to do a consistent job and we have a good start."

Much of Arrowhead Stadium reflects the personality of Steadman, who conceived the idea of Kansas City building the two-stadium Harry S. Truman Sports Complex that resulted in the 78,000-seat football facility and the 42,000-seat baseball stadium (Royals Stadium).

In addition to serving as president of the Chiefs, Steadman also is president of Worlds of Fun, Lamar Hunt's multi-million dollar family recreation park north of Kansas City. Steadman not only directs the overall operations of the Chiefs and Worlds of Fun but also is responsible for the future growth and expansion of both of Hunt's Kansas City-based operations.

As a member of the United Way executive committee and board of directors, Steadman will serve as the United Way Campaign General Chairman for 1979, heading up the fund-raising drive for the Heart of America United Way chapter. He also is a member of the board of directors and executive committee and is vice president of membership and meetings for the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City. Despite a demanding work schedule, Steadman remains active in several other civic affairs including being a member of the Civic Council of Greater Kansas City, on the executive committee and board of directors of Starlight Theatre Association, the board of directors of the Kansas City Sponsor Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, a member of the board of directors of the American Royal Association and an advisory trustee for Research Medical Center.

Born in Aurora, Illinois, Steadman grew up in Warrenville, Illinois. He attended Baylor University and received his degree in business administration from Southern Methodist University. Jack and his wife, Martha, have two sons, Tom, 28; and Don, 23; and a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Selders, 27.

CHIEFS GENERAL MANAGER

JIM SCHAAF

Jim Schaaf, the Chiefs 41-year-old general manager, begins his 14th season with the club in a career that has covered virtually all areas of the team's operation. Schaaf joined the Chiefs in 1966 as director of public relations following five years association with the Kansas City Athletics baseball club. He was elevated to assistant general manager in January, 1968 and to vice president in July, 1974.

Schaaf was named to his present position in August, 1976. Following Lamar Hunt's elevation of Jack Steadman to president, Steadman began a reorganization of the front office that resulted in Schaaf's being named vice president and general manager. In January, 1978, Steadman delegated to Schaaf full responsibility in the areas of player personnel and overall team operations. In that assignment, Schaaf works closely with head coach Marv Levy and player personnel director Les Miller and their staffs in the day-to-day responsibility of player personnel and football team areas of operation.

"Jim has all the qualities you look for in a general manager," says Steadman. "He is dedicated, aggressive, intelligent, thorough and highly motivated to succeed. I feel because of his dedication and leadership that we are beginning to show substantial progress in all team-related areas of operation. Jim is fast becoming recognized as one of the most outstanding young general managers in pro football."

Schaaf's duties in the past included supervision of Chiefs day-to-day operations and the promotion of special events. Schaaf held several front office positions with the Athletics and was their director of publicity and promotions when he joined the Chiefs.

Schaaf gives freely of his time to several organizations in the Kansas City area. He has served on the board of directors of the American Cancer Society.

Schaaf gives freely of his time to several organizations in the Kansas City area. He has served on the board of directors of the American Cancer Society.

Schaaf was born May 22, 1938 in Erie, Pennsylvania. He attended Cathedral Preparatory School in Erie, then moved to Notre Dame, where he earned a bachelor's degree in economics. He played three years of football for the Fighting Irish, two as a starter, at guard from 1956-58. He and his wife, Julie, have two children, Jill Marie, 15, and James, 11. The family lives in Overland Park, Kansas.

CHIEFS HEAD COACH

MARV LEVY

Marv Levy spent most of 1978 getting his Kansas City Chiefs immersed into his system of football. Now he's ready to get on to the task of something he knows a lot about: winning.

The 51-year-old Levy is the fourth head coach in the Chiefs history. Last year, his club turned in a 4-12 mark in a campaign that produced some positive effects for the future. Levy, however, is ready to move onward . . . and upward.

"I feel much more at ease going into this season. I certainly feel much more comfortable about my and the club's position. I feel better about where we are. We know our players so much better and I think they know us and our system so much better."

Though Levy came to the Chiefs by way of the Canadian Football League, he was by no means a stranger to NFL circles when he was named head coach December 20, 1977. From 1973 through 1977, Levy was head coach of the CFL Montreal Alouettes and it was his spectacular success north of the border that made him a head coaching candidate in the NFL.

Counting postseason play in which the Alouettes won the CFL Grey Cup two times in Levy's five years, his record stood at 50-34-4. The Alouettes made the CFL playoffs each of Levy's five seasons, played for the Grey Cup three times and, in 1977, Montreal recorded its best-ever regular season record, 11 victories and five defeats. The Alouettes finished the year with a runaway 41-6 Grey Cup rout of Edmonton.

Marv began his professional coaching career in 1969 with the Philadelphia Eagles as special teams coach. He joined George Allen's Los Angeles Rams staff in 1970, then moved with Allen to the Washington Redskins the following year. Levy remained with the Redskins through the 1972 season. With a great emphasis on the Levy-coached special teams, Washington won the 1972 NFC championship, 26-3 over the Dallas Cowboys, then met Miami in Super Bowl VII. Levy moved north to Montreal in 1973. His first Alouette squad reached the finals of the CFL's Eastern Division, then won the Grey Cup the following year.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Levy also holds a master's degree in English history from Harvard University. His coaching career got underway at Coe from 1953 through 1955. He then joined the New Mexico staff in 1956 and was New Mexico's head coach in 1958-59. After receiving Skyline Conference coach of the year honors both those seasons, Levy took over at California in 1960, coaching the Golden Bears through the 1963 season. One of Levy's players at the time was All-America quarterback Craig Morton. His next coaching assignment was at William and Mary, where he stayed five years. Levy was named Southern Conference coach of the year in 1964 and '65.

Having spent considerable time around George Allen, who recommended him highly for the Chiefs post, Levy knows the importance of a strong defense and quality kicking teams. "I believe the most important thing we need to do at this point is to continue to develop a great defense. We want to build a sound, aggressive, punishing defense because that is the way to build a consistent winner in the NFL." For the second consecutive year with Levy as head coach, the Chiefs made their first draft selection a defensive player.

Kansas City emphasized the Wing-T running game in Levy's first season and will continue to do so, though the head coach is looking for improvement in the passing phase. "We need to create a more effective passing attack. I'm not necessarily talking about more passing, but a more effective play-action attack.

"I think we did institute something that is very difficult to get accomplished offensively and that's a very strong running game. The implementation of a strong running game was a goal we felt was vital yet difficult to achieve and we did achieve our goal in that area."

Building through the draft—and stability among the players the Chiefs already have—are paramount to Levy. "The development of our young players will be much improved this coming season. As coaches, we must believe strongly in coaching the players we have on this team and not give up on them by constantly making personnel changes.

"We still have a long way to go. But the groundwork is there and the challenge of improving in the AFC West is something I'm looking forward to."

Levy is married to the former Dorothy Prout, whom he met when both were students at Coe. They make their home in Overland Park.

RON WALLER, Director of Pro Personnel

The daily task of keeping tabs on the various personnel movements around the NFL is the responsibility of Ron Waller, who joined the club in 1978. Waller additionally serves as the club's future game scout, analyzing upcoming Kansas City opponents on a weekly basis. His intimate knowledge of the various semi-professional football leagues around the country has resulted in several free-agent signings for the Chiefs.

Waller has had NFL coaching experience with the San Diego Chargers. He served as the head coach the latter half of the 1973 season after opening the campaign as an assistant under Harland Svare. Waller was head coach of the WFL Philadelphia Bell in 1974. The next two years he worked in a scouting capacity with the Los Angeles Rams, for whom he played in 1955-58.

As a Rams rookie in 1955, Waller set a club rushing record for first-year players. He also played one season, 1960, with the Los Angeles Chargers in the AFL before the Chargers migrated to San Diego.

Waller played collegiately at the University of Maryland. He's had extensive coaching experience in the semipro football ranks, coaching the Pottstown Firebirds in 1969. He met Marv Levy that year when Levy was an assistant at Philadelphia. Prior to joining the Chiefs, Waller coached the Southern California Rhinos in 1977.

A devoted runner, Waller makes his home in Kansas City.

CHIEFS COACHING STAFF

ROD RUST, Defensive Coordinator

A longtime friend of Marv Levy, Rod Rust was the first appointee to Levy's Chiefs coaching staff a season ago. He came to Kansas City from the staff of the Philadelphia Eagles, where he worked two seasons (1976-77) under Dick Vermeil with the linebackers and front seven.

"As defensive coordinator, Rod was responsible for what I feel to have been a noticeable overall defensive improvement," says Levy. The 51-year-old Rust, a native of Webster City, Iowa, has coached with and against Levy in the past. Prior to joining the Eagles coaching staff, Rust spent three seasons, 1973-75, as defensive coordinator for Levy's Montreal Alouettes.

A center and linebacker at Iowa State, Rust completed a two-year tour of duty with the U.S. Army in the Far East before embarking on his coaching career. His first collegiate experience was at the University of New Mexico as an assistant in 1960. He moved on to Stanford University in 1963 where he was defensive coordinator under John Ralston through 1966. Levy, meanwhile, was across town as head coach of the California Bears for part of Rust's stint at Stanford.

In 1967, Rust was named head coach at North Texas State. During his six years there, he helped develop several outstanding defensive linemen, including all-pros Joe Greene of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Cedrick Hardman of the San Francisco 49ers.

Rod is the father of two sons, Jeff, 26; and Greg, 23. He makes his home in North Kansas City.

DICK ROACH, Defensive Backfield Coach

When Marv Levy left Canada for his first NFL head coaching assignment, he brought Dick Roach with him as defensive backfield coach. The 46-year-old Roach was Levy's defensive coordinator at Montreal in 1976-77 and the Alouettes were recognized as the finest CFL defensive team at that time. Enroute to the Grey Cup championship in 1977, the Montreal defense led the league in interceptions (32) and fewest points allowed (245 in 16 games) while finishing second in overall total defense. During Montreal's 41-6 route of Edmonton in the '77 Grey Cup title game, the Alouettes permitted only nine first downs and 102 net yards, both championship game records.

Roach in 1979 will continue his efforts with a youth-laden Chiefs secondary. "Dick's an outstanding teacher and fundamentalist," says Levy. Though Kansas City's defensive backfield did not have any returns for touchdowns a year ago, "I feel Dick will bring his talents to the forefront this year and make the secondary a more telling defensive weapon this season," Levy continued.

A native of Rapid City, South Dakota, Roach graduated from Black Hills State University in Spearfish, S.D. He played and started four years, captained the squad and earned all-conference and Little All-America recognition. Roach also holds a master's degree from Wyoming.

After high school coaching jobs in South Dakota and Idaho, Roach worked under Jim Sweeney as defensive line and linebacker coach at Montana State from 1966-69. In that time, the Bobcats won three Big Sky championships. He coached Oregon State's defensive line in 1970, then became defensive coordinator at Wyoming for 1971-72. Dick was defensive coordinator at Fresno State in 1973, then coached the defensive line and linebackers at Washington State in 1974-75 before joining Levy in Montreal.

Dick's brother, Paul, is also a veteran NFL assistant and currently coaches the offensive backs at Denver.

Dick and his wife Laverne have two sons, E.T., 19; Matt, 17; and a daughter, Stacy Ann, 15. The family lives in Independence.

WALT COREY, Defensive Line Coach

A former Chiefs player, Walt Corey is now in his second tour of duty with the coaching staff. Corey returned to Arrowhead a year ago with a new assignment from Marv Levy, that of defensive line coach. Corey's previous NFL playing and coaching experience had been with linebackers.

Corey played linebacker with the Dallas Texans and Chiefs from the American Football League's inception in 1960 through the 1966 season. He entered the collegiate coaching ranks in 1967 at Utah State, then returned to the University of Miami (Fla.), his alma mater, in 1970.

Walt worked under Hank Stram as linebacker coach from 1971-74 then spent the following three seasons on the Cleveland Browns coaching staff prior to his Kansas City return a year ago.

"Last year was Walt's first with a defensive line and he had a largely rookie group," said Levy. "He did a lot in just a year's time to lay the groundwork for what will be a strong front line in the near future."

A devoted weight training enthusiast, Corey handled those responsibilities in the past with the Chiefs. It was a personal training program that allowed Corey his chance to play pro football. He built himself up to 235 pounds, from a 180-pound defensive end, to win a tryout with the Texans. He instituted the Chiefs first weight conditioning program in 1964 as an active player.

Walt and his wife, Jane, are the parents of three children and make their home in Raytown.

TOM PAGNA, Offensive Backfield Coach

In the space of one season, Tom Pagna helped turn the Chiefs rushing game into a record-setting unit. Under Pagna's tutelage, Kansas City's running backs ran up an all-time season rushing figure (2,986 yards) and had five different players carry for 100 or more yards in a single game.

This is Pagna's first NFL assignment, though he came to pro football with impressive collegiate credentials. Pagna directed Notre Dame's offensive backfields under Ara Parseghian during the 1960s. Pagna played for Parseghian at Miami of Ohio from 1950-54 and twice received Little All-America and all-Ohio recognition. He played pro football briefly with Cleveland and Green Bay before bowing to injuries and entering coaching. Following two seasons in the high school ranks, Pagna joined Parseghian's Northwestern staff in 1960. He made the move with Ara to Notre Dame in 1964 and remained there through the 1974 season when Parseghian resigned as the Irish's head coach.

"Tom's record at Notre Dame as Ara Parseghian's most relied-upon assistant speaks for itself," says Marv Levy. "He did an outstanding job with the Chiefs backs, both as a motivator and teacher. Tom molded the backfield not only into a record-setting group, but into one that will only continue to get better."

Since 1974, Pagna has helped coach the College All-Star team in 1975 and served for one year as the executive director of the Notre Dame Alumni Association. He joined Parseghian Enterprises, an insurance and public relations firm, and was with that company in the speaker's bureau since leaving Notre Dame and coming to Kansas City. Pagna is in great demand as an afterdinner speaker.

Tom and his wife Shirley have two daughters, Sandy, 23; and Susan, 19. The Pagnas make their home in Independence.

KAY DALTON, Receivers Coach

Kay Dalton calls upon a decade of coaching experience in both the NFL and CFL as his Kansas City assignment is to revamp the club's passing game.

The 47-year-old Dalton, a native of Moab, Utah, served previously in the NFL with the Denver Broncos and Buffalo Bills. Dalton coached the Broncos receivers under John Ralston from 1974-76, then spent 1977 at Buffalo prior to joining Marv Levy in Kansas City. "I've known Kay for twenty years," says Levy, "and I believe he's the man who will improve our passing game. He's responsible for our overall passing game. Kay is a patient worker and I'm sure his facet of our offense will be a productive one." Dalton came to the Chiefs on the heels of a strong passing performance by the '77 Bills. While in charge of the Buffalo passing game, Dalton's charges led the AFC in passing offense with the most net yards and highest per-game average.

Dalton's and Levy's coaching roots both go back to Montreal and the CFL. Dalton's first professional assignment came in 1966 at Montreal and he then became the head coach the following year. He worked three years as the Alouettes head man, through 1969, before becoming offensive coordinator of the British Columbia Lions in 1970.

Dalton, who played college football at Colorado State, went to Colorado as an assistant to Eddie Crowder for two years, 1971-72, before going to the Broncos, where he spent 1973 in the scouting department before moving to the coaching staff.

Dalton's head coaching experience on the college level included stints at Trinidad State Junior College from 1958-60 and Western State College from 1961-65.

Dalton, his wife Mary Jane and daughter Meredith live in Raytown.

JOE SPENCER, Offensive Line Coach

Joe Spencer, whose football experience covers the past three decades, opens his fifth season with Kansas City in a coaching career that has taken him through the collegiate, CFL and NFL ranks.

A native of Oklahoma City, Spencer has coached 13 years in the AFL/NFL, all with offensive lines. He spent five years, 1961-65, with the Houston Oilers, three with the New York Jets, 1968-70, and one year, 1971, with the St. Louis Cardinals. Spencer coached the Jets front line that protected Joe Namath in their Super Bowl III upset of the Baltimore Colts.

Spencer was the lone assistant retained by Levy when he took over as head coach in 1978. "Joe did a superb job with the offensive line last year," says Levy. "Our fine rushing game was due in large part to the achievements of our offensive line. I think some people tended to overlook the fact we had a vast improvement in our pass protection as well." The number of quarterback sacks dropped from 48 in 1977 to only 21 last year.

Spencer coached two years, 1966-67, with the CFL Edmonton Eskimos before returning to the U.S. and the Jets. He was with Kansas University in 1972-73 and the WFL Chicago Fire in '74 before joining the Chiefs.

He was the head coach at Austin (Tex.) College from 1952-60. A tackle on both offense and defense at Oklahoma State from 1942-47, Spencer played five years with the Brooklyn Dodgers of the All-

America Football Conference. He finished his playing career with the NFL Cleveland Browns and Green Bay Packers.

Joe and his wife, Betty Jo, have a son, Jeff, 30; and a daughter, Sara, 28. The Spencers live in Kansas City.

BOBBY ROSS, Kicking Game Coach

As an assistant coach, Marv Levy's responsibilities revolved around the kicking game. Thus it's no surprise the Chiefs head coach puts a special emphasis on this aspect of football and he has placed it in the hands of 42-year-old Bobby Ross.

The former head coach at The Citadel, Ross worked with Levy in the past, serving as an assistant on his William and Mary staff. "Bobby did a remarkable job with our overall kicking game," says Levy. "There was marked improvement in all areas involving kicking teams from the year before. Bobby also instilled an esprit de corps among the players on the kicking teams and that enthusiasm for the task was most essential."

A graduate of Virginia Military Institute, Ross coached on the high school level in Virginia before landing an assistant's position at his alma mater in 1965-66.

In 1967, he joined Levy and worked two years under the Chiefs head coach, then two more years at William and Mary after Levy left to join the Philadelphia Eagles. Ross departed William and Mary in 1970 for Rice. He was with the Owls for one year before moving to Jerry Claiborne's Maryland staff in 1972. He was named head coach at The Citadel in December of that year and had a combined 24-31 record in five years at the school.

Bobby and his wife, Alice, have five children, Chris, 17, a quarterback at Raytown South High School; Mary Catherine, 15; Teresa, 14; Kevin, 13; and Robbie, 5. The family resides in Raytown.

RICK ABERNETHY, Strength and Flexibility Coach

The newest member of Mary Levy's coaching staff is 33-year-old Rick Abernethy. Abernethy came to the club last spring and is in charge of an expanded weight training and flexibility program for all Chiefs players.

Abernethy, a lifelong Kansas City resident, played football at Kansas University and was a member of KU's 1969 Orange Bowl team that met Penn State. Following graduation, Abernethy taught and coached several sports at area high schools, notably Southeast, Southwest, Center and Ruskin.

"Rick has a fine background overall in strength and conditioning. His presence on the staff is going to be a tremendous asset to our program in developing the players on a year-round basis," said Levy.

Abernethy, his wife Rita and daughters Janielle and Stacy reside in Overland Park.

CHIEFS TRAVEL PLANS

The Chiefs travel to all opponent cities via airline charter. Chiefs charters are scheduled to arrive at the opponent city at approximately 2:00 p.m. the afternoon prior to kickoff and return to Kansas City immediately following the game.

Chiefs director of public relations Bob Sprenger will arrive in each opponent city on either Tuesday or Wednesday of game week.

MEDIA FACILITIES

The Press/Radio/Television box at Arrowhead is located on the south side of the stadium on two levels. Entrance to the Radio/Television level (Plaza) and working press level (Club) is through Gate E. The Chiefs provide complete photo darkroom facilities for use on game day and requests for use of these darkrooms should be made in advance to the Chiefs public relations department.

SUPER BOWL REUNION

The 1979 season marks the 10th anniversary of the Chiefs Super Bowl season in which they claimed the world championship with a 23-7 victory over the Minnesota Vikings. The Chiefs organization will mark the significance of the city's first and only world championship in any sport with a special reunion to be held the weekend of the Chiefs game with the Oakland Raiders on September 23. Invitations have been extended to the 40 players on the Super Bowl squad, plus the coaching staff, to be on hand at Arrowhead and relive the Chiefs Super Bowl IV triumph.

WAYNE RUDY, Head Trainer

Wayne Rudy, the Chiefs popular head trainer, has been with the team ever since the formation of the American Football League in 1960. Recognized nationally as one of the foremost in his field, Wayne begins his 20th season with the Texans/Chiefs.

Rudy has served athletic teams over the past 34 years. A graduate of Bowling Green University, he was inducted into his alma mater's Hall of Fame in 1975. He also holds a master's degree from Southern Methodist University. Rudy was the SMU trainer for 13 years from 1947 through 1959 before signing on with the Dallas Texans. One of the athletes he served while at SMU was a seldom-used end named Lamar Hunt, who brought Rudy into pro football upon formation of his new team and league.

Wayne was one of the founders of the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association and has twice been a national director of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He has received numerous awards in the training field and in 1974 was named to the Helms Athletic Hall of Fame.

Wayne and his wife, Joan, reside in Overland Park, Kansas.

Assisting Rudy for the fifth consecutive year is Dave Kendall, the team's assistant trainer. Kendall graduated from Kansas State College at Pittsburg with a degree in physical education. He served as assistant trainer at Pittsburg State. Kendall is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. Dave married the former Jackie Christiansen, daughter of Seattle assistant coach Jack Christiansen, last spring. The couple lives in Independence.

BOBBY YARBOROUGH, Equipment Manager

Bobby Yarborough has been the Chiefs equipment manager for 19 years. He attended the University of Texas where as student trainer his interest in behind-the-scenes athletics was fostered by his association with longtime Longhorns trainer Frank Medina.

Bobby is a member of the board of directors and a member of the organizing committee of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. He also served as convention chairman for that group's annual meeting when it has been held in Kansas City.

Yarborough also served in the past as organizer and director of the Chiefs off-season basketball team that helped raise over a half million dollars for charities throughout the Midwest.

The Yarborough family, which includes wife Joyce and six sons, lives at Lake Winnebago.

PLAYER PERSONNEL STAFF

LES MILLER

The Chiefs procurement of players, via the draft, waiver or free agent route, is the responsibility of player personnel director Les Miller and his four-man staff. Miller, who's directed the last four Kansas City drafts, came to the Chiefs after serving three seasons under current Washington general manager Bobby Beathard on the Miami Dolphins scouting staff. In addition to his four full-time scouts, Miller also receives personnel information from the BLESTO scouting combine, which the Chiefs joined in 1975.

The 42-year-old Miller is a native of Bernice, Oklahoma. He attended Oklahoma State University, then graduated from Kansas State College at Pittsburg with an education degree in 1958. For the next 13 years, Les coached at the high school and college level. He was the head football, basketball and baseball coach at Afton (Okla.) High School from 1958-60 and then coached baseball and football at two Tulsa high schools before accepting a position in private business.

Miller returned to coaching in 1967 as head football coach at Joplin (Mo.) High School. After two seasons, he was named an assistant coach at Brigham Young University in charge of offensive backs until the Dolphins named him to their scouting staff in 1972.

An avid baseball fan, Miller spent two seasons, 1954-55, as a third baseman and outfielder in the New York Yankees farm system.

Les and his wife Joyce have four children, Mike, 23; Debbie, 21; Marty, 10; and Matt, 7. They make their home in Overland Park.

TOMMY O'BOYLE

J. D. HELM

BOBBY GILL

OTIS TAYLOR

The player personnel staff is comprised of Tommy O'Boyle, J. D. Helm and Bobby Gill, all in their fifth season with Miller, plus Otis Taylor, who's beginning his second year.

O'Boyle has been with the Chiefs since 1966. He served on Hank Stram's staff as both an assistant coach and talent scout through 1974, then returned to the club at the behest of Les Miller. The number one draft choice of the Chicago Bears in 1940, O'Boyle was head coach at Tulane from 1962 through 1965. Tommy and wife Rosemary live in Kansas City.

Helm, a Kansas graduate, coached two years at Shawnee Mission East High School before going to Brigham Young as offensive backfield coach in 1968. He remained at BYU through 1974. J. D. and wife Elizabeth reside in Overland Park.

Gill attended Baylor and coached at several schools in the Southwest. He began his coaching career at Ouachita Baptist with stints at Houston, Tulsa, New Mexico State and Texas El Paso prior to joining the Chiefs. Bobby and wife Barbara live in Overland Park.

Taylor, the Chiefs fourth round draft choice in 1965, joined the personnel department in 1978. The former Prairie View All-America is Kansas City's alltime leading receiver with 410 receptions in 10 seasons. Taylor also holds Chiefs records for most career touchdowns (60) and most career pass receiving yardage (7,306). Otis lives in Kansas City.

CHIEFS VETERANS

ZENON ANDRUSYSHYN

Punter Ht: 6-1 Wt: 213

How Acquired: Free Agent

College: UCLA

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: February 25, 1948

Birthplace: Gunzburg, Germany

Residence: Port Credit, Ontario

Following a seven-season career with Toronto of the Canadian Football League, Andrusyshyn (pron: Zen-on An-dru-zi-shin) signed with the Chiefs as a free agent in 1978 . . . In his first NFL campaign, he ranked third among AFC punters with a 41.1 average . . . He got off to a slow start in the season opener with a punt blocked for a touchdown, but settled down the rest of the year with a 61-yard long vs. Oakland . . . His 79 punts for the season are fourth on the Chiefs list . . . Took over the club's kickoff chores from Jan Stenerud last year . . . Andrusyshyn holds the CFL record for the longest punt in a game, 108 yards, and in his seven years north of the border, punted 896 times for a 44.8 average . . . Highest seasonal output with Toronto was a 45.2 mark in 1977 . . . He led the Argos in scoring, utilized on field goals as well as punts, his last five seasons at Toronto . . . Andrusyshyn originally had been drafted on the ninth round by the Dallas Cowboys in 1970. He was waived during the preseason, then moved to the CFL . . . Played college football at UCLA from 1967-69 and led NCAA in punting as a sophomore with a 44.2 average . . . Originally attended UCLA on a track scholarship . . . Attended Oakville-Trafalgar H.S. in Oakville, Ontario . . . Married, wife Sue.

CHARLIE ANE

Center Ht: 6-1 Wt: 237

How Acquired: Free Agent

College: Michigan State

NFL Experience: 5

Birthdate: August 12, 1952

Birthplace: Los Angeles, California

Residence: Honolulu, Hawaii

Ane has played every game the past four seasons as the snapper on punts and kicking plays, as well as the backup center to Jack Rudnay . . . Took over for Rudnay in the season finale at Seattle last year when Rudnay tore a calf muscle . . . He has had one start, that in 1976 at Buffalo . . . Has now appeared in 58 straight games . . . Ane reported to his first training camp as the fourth of four centers, but his deep snap abilities won him the role as successor to the retired Bobby Bell . . . Ane's familiarity with the center position goes back to his childhood as his father, Charlie, snapped for the Detroit Lions during the 1950s . . . Attended Punahou H.S. in Honolulu . . . Single.

MARK BAILEY

Running Back Ht: 6-3 Wt: 237

How Acquired: Draft (No. 4a-1977)

College: Cal State Long Beach

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: December 13, 1954

Birthplace: Lynwood, California

Residence: Long Beach, California

Bailey opened 1978 with an impressive 26-carry, 106-yard rushing output at Cincinnati, but spent most of the year behind Arnold Morgado and MacArthur Lane in the fullback slot . . . Nonetheless, in being one of five Chiefs rushers to carry for 100 or more yards in a single game, Bailey showed flashes of the abilities that could still loom large for the Chiefs in 1979 . . . He ended the year as the fourth leading rusher with 298 yards on 83 carries for a 3.6 output . . . Bailey's top days were early in the season, 58 yards on 17 carries at the New York Giants and 35 yards on nine attempts vs. Houston . . . Also caught five passes for 13 yards . . . Played in 13 games overall, opening in five . . . A transfer to Cal State Long Beach from California, Bailey earned all-Pacific Coast Athletic Association honors both of the years he was at CSLB . . . Carried for 1,012 yards at the Long Beach school, including 457 on 108 carries as a senior . . . At Long Beach, Bailey played on squads that compiled 8-3 and 9-2 records and earned a berth in the Shrine East-West game following his senior year . . . Played high school football in Pico Rivera, Calif. and was named the most valuable player in his conference as a senior in spite of the fact his El Rancho H.S. team won only one game . . . Majored in physical education . . . Single.

GARY BARBARO

Safety Ht: 6-4 Wt: 204

How Acquired: Draft (No. 3c-1977)

College: Nicholls State

NFL Experience: 4

Birthdate: February 11, 1954

Birthplace: New Orleans, Louisiana

Residence: Metairie, Louisiana

In terms of interceptions, Barbaro dropped from a club-high eight in 1977 to three last year, but Chiefs coaches believe he'll continue to be a prime ingredient in Kansas City's secondary . . . With three seasons experience, he's already one of the senior hands in a youth-laden defense . . . Barbaro went 11 games before picking off his first '78 interception, but proceeded to grab three in the final four games of the year . . . His minimum return was 27 yards and his 30.7 average led the club . . . Barbaro now has 14 pass thefts in three years . . . He earned a place in the NFL record book in 1977 when he intercepted a Jim Zorn pass vs. Seattle and returned it for a 102-yard touchdown, tying for the longest return in NFL history with Bob Smith (Detroit, 1949 vs. Chicago Bears) and Erich Barnes (N.Y. Giants, 1961 vs. Dallas) . . . Last year, Barbaro's first interception was one of five in the Chiefs 23-0 shutout of San Diego and resulted in a 35-yard runback . . . Six of Barbaro's 14 interceptions have come against the Chargers . . . Barbaro opened in all 16 games a year ago and now has appeared in 44 consecutive contests . . . He's been a starter almost from the day he came to his first camp, taking over for the traded Mike Sensibaugh at free safety . . . Ranked ninth in team tackles with 65, 42 unassisted, and recovered a fumble . . . Barbaro was among the first varsity football graduates of Nicholls State and for a time was the only active alumnus in the NFL . . . He played wide receiver at Nicholls in '73, then was switched to the secondary for 1974-75 . . . Played cornerback both years and intercepted nine passes, six as a senior . . . Barbaro played only one year of football at East Jefferson H.S. in Metairie, La., concentrating before that on the trombone as a member of the band . . . Majored in health and physical education . . . Interests include hunting, fishing and working on automobiles . . . Married, wife Karen, one child.

How Acquired: Free Agent

College: Florida State

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: January 2, 1955

Birthplace: Key West, Florida

Residence: Miami, Florida

Beckman has made his mark with special team play over the last two seasons . . . His teammates voted him special teams captain for 1978 and the club's specialty units showed marked improvement in all areas over the previous year . . . Beckman also saw duty on third down and short yardage situations when an extra blocker was required . . . It was Beckman's blocking skills that originally enabled him to make the club in 1977 after he'd reported as a free agent . . . He was passed over in that year's draft and requested a tryout . . . Had 12 solo tackles last season, all on kick coverage . . . Once again Beckman figures to be in the tight end picture along with Walter White and Tony Samuels . . . Played his pro position at South Miami Senior H.S. . . . Single.

How Acquired: Free Agent

College: Southeastern Louisiana

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: July 16, 1955

Birthplace: Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Residence: Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Belton earned a spot on the roster during training camp in both a rushing and special team role . . . He'd been associated with Marv Levy before, playing for Levy's Montreal team in 1977 and performing a key role for the Alouettes on their march to the Grey Cup championship . . . Belton had been the last cut at Houston that year, then went north to the CFL . . . In limited backfield duty, Belton carried 24 times for 79 yards in '78 with a long of eight . . . Top output rushing was 25 yards on five carries vs. Oakland and 16 on three attempts vs. Houston . . . Caught 11 passes, with high of four vs. Tampa Bay . . . Also returned nine kickoffs with long of 41, second best on the club . . . Belton accounted for 12 tackles on the special teams . . . In the Tampa Bay game, he made the tackle on the opening kickoff, forced a fumble and recovered it himself to set up a score . . . Started three years at Southeastern Louisiana and carried for 1,061 yards his junior year . . . Attended Scotlandville H.S. in Baton Rouge .

How Acquired: Draft (No. 9-1978)

College: Miami (Fla.)

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: June 4, 1955

Birthplace: Jacksonville, Florida

Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Determination enabled Brown to land a roster slot on his second try with the Chiefs in one year . . . The club's ninth round draft choice last year, Brown was waived in training camp . . . He found employment working the all-night shift in an automobile assembly plant, then was re-signed in October following an injury to Jim Nicholson . . . Appeared in one game and will vie for interior line duty in '79 . . . Brown overcame a series of injuries his first two years in college to open in every contest his last two seasons . . . Was switched to the offensive line as a junior . . . Competed in football, wrestling and track at William Raines H.S. in Jacksonville

Safety Ht: 5-10 Wt: 185

How Acquired: Free Agent

College: Notre Dame

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: November 8, 1955

Birthplace: Dubuque, Iowa

Residence: Dubuque, Iowa

Drafted by Miami on the fifth round last year, Burgmeier was a late Dolphins cut and out of football until contacted by the Chiefs . . . He joined the club in October and appeared in eight games overall, starting two late in the year in place of Tim Gray . . . Burgmeier played mostly in special team situations and returned four punts with a long of 55 yards, best on the team . . . That occurred at Denver in the next-to-last game of the year . . . Accounted for 30 tackles, 19 unassisted, and recovered one fumble . . . At Notre Dame, played two years in the secondary and intercepted six passes . . . As sophomore, caught 10 passes at wide receiver, including 80-yard touchdown . . . Played large role in Notre Dame's rout of Southern California in 1977, returning interception 37 yards, passing for two-point conversion when center snap went awry and ran 21 yards on fake field goal try to set up a touchdown . . . Played quarterback at Wahlert H.S. in Dubuque and also competed as a pole vaulter . . . Married, wife Julie, one child.

How Acquired: Draft (No. 9-1976)

College: East Texas State

NFL Experience: 4

Birthdate: May 31, 1954

Birthplace: Dallas, Texas

Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Collier has shared starting duties at right corner the past two years with veteran Emmitt Thomas . . . In 1978, he appeared in 15 games overall, opening in six . . . He intercepted three passes, including two in one game vs. Oakland, to run his career total to seven . . . One of those put him in the Chiefs record book . . . On the final game of 1977, Collier intercepted an Oakland pass and ran 100 yards to a touchdown, the second longest return in Kansas City history . . . The record had been set the week previous by Gary Barbaro, who had a 102-yard runback . . . He joined four other players with 100-yard interception returns . . . Accounted for nine tackles overall, mostly on special team work . . . Collier had nine interceptions in three seasons at East Texas State, where he played both corner and safety . . . Earned first-team all-Lone Star Conference honors in 1973-74-75 and ran track at ETSU with a 9.4 100 to his credit . . . TOM CONDON

Guard Ht: 6-3 Wt: 254

How Acquired: Draft (No. 10-1974)

College: Boston College

NFL Experience: 6

Birthdate: October 26, 1952

Birthplace: Derby, Connecticut

Residence: Lutherville, Maryland

From a low-round draft choice to a four-year starter has been Tom Condon's NFL story . . . His steady and consistent play has made him one of the mainstays of what essentially is a youthful protective force . . . In fact, Condon's five pro seasons on the offensive line (along with Jim Nicholson and Charlie Getty), represent the second most experience behind Jack Rudnay's nine years . . . Condon has played in all but one of 42 games over the past three years and has not missed a start in over two years . . . After spending all of his rookie season on special teams, he won a starting role in 1975 only to incur a midseason knee injury that required surgery . . . He missed the rest of that year as a result . . . Perhaps the highlight of his 1978 season was a pair of outstanding performances against San Diego's Louie Kelcher . . . In nine quarters of combat, Condon did not permit Kelcher a quarterback sack . . . Condon came to Boston College without a scholarship, but added 30 pounds (from 190 to 220) and won a starting guard position as a sophomore . . . A consistent dean's list scholar as an undergraduate, Condon has spent the past three off-seasons in law school at the University of Baltimore and takes classes at the University of Missouri-Kansas City during the season . . . In between classes, he's acted as a law clerk in a Baltimore law firm . . . Majored in sociology and philosophy while at BC . . . A regular on the weights, Condon's upper body strength is among the best on the club . . . Attended Notre Dame H.S. in West Haven, Conn. . . Married, wife Virginia, one child.

How Acquired: Waivers (from Tampa Bay)

College: Alabama

NFL Experience: 4

Birthdate: May 18, 1953

Birthplace: Bessemer, Alabama

Residence: Birmingham, Alabama

Davis missed all of last season on injured reserve after fracturing his collarbone during training camp . . . The injury has healed completely, and he will be in the running for duty at the strong safety position . . . The Chiefs picked Davis off the waiver wire in 1977 following an injury to starter Tim Gray . . . Appeared in 13 games that year, five as a starter, with most of his activity on special teams after Gray returned to the lineup . . . Davis came to the NFL as an eighth round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals in 1975 . . . Played mostly on special teams that year, but did intercept one pass for 26 yards . . . He then went to Tampa Bay in the expansion draft and worked in 11 games at free safety . . . The Buccaneers let him go at the end of '77 training camp and he caught on with Kansas City . . . A former high school quarterback, Davis started at strong safety for two years at Alabama . . . Attended Jess Lanier H.S. in Bessemer . . . Single.

LARRY DORSEY

Wide Receiver Ht: 6-0 Wt: 190

How Acquired: Trade (Wilbur Young to San Diego—1978)

College: Tennessee State

NFL Experience: 4

Birthdate: August 15, 1953

Birthplace: Corinth, Mississippi

Residence: Corinth, Mississippi

Dorsey moved to Kansas City in a 1978 draft-day transaction that sent Wilbur Young to San Diego . . . Due to the Chiefs Wing-T offense, Dorsey's playing time was limited, though he did become the second wide receiver in passing situations . . . Caught nine passes overall, but two were for touchdowns . . . The Chargers drafted Dorsey on the third round in 1976 after he'd caught 85 passes and scored 26 touchdowns in three seasons at Tennessee State . . . Appeared in all 16 games a year ago . . . Dorsey was named to several All-America teams following his senior year . . . He is completing off-season work on his master's degree in health and physical education . . . His father, Frank, played briefly with the Los Angeles Chargers of the AFL . . . Attended Corinth H.S. in Corinth, Miss. . . . Single.

CHARLIE GETTY

Guard/Tackle Ht: 6-4 Wt: 269

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2-1974)

College: Penn State

NFL Experience: 6

Birthdate: July 24, 1952

Birthplace: Paterson, New Jersey

Residence: Raytown, Missouri

Getty has served as a capable starter and reserve through five seasons with the Chiefs . . . He started in 10 games last year, taking over at right tackle after Jim Nicholson was injured, and played in 16 overall . . . Getty has played both at guard and tackle with the Chiefs; his versatility and knowledge of both positions has fortified the offensive line as a whole . . . He was a starter at tackle and guard his first three seasons, but in 1977 relinquished the left guard slot to Bob Simmons . . . Getty began his pro career at tackle, but moved to guard in 1976 to make room for Matt Herkenhoff . . . He will be a candidate at both interior line positions this year . . . Following his first year, Getty was named to the NFL's all-rookie team . . . A two-year starter under Joe Paterno at Penn State, he played right tackle in three consecutive Nittany Lions bowl appearances (Cotton in 1972, Sugar in '73, Orange in '74) . . . Also an outstanding collegiate wrestler, finishing fifth in the '73 NCAA championships, his first year at the collegiate level . . . Improved to third in '74 competition . . . Maintained a 3.2 average as a physical education/recreation major at Penn State . . . Played football, wrestled and competed on the track team at Pompton Lakes H.S. in Pompton Lakes, N.J. . . . Getty is extremely active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and spends numerous in- and off-season hours speaking on behalf of church and youth groups in the greater Kansas City area . . . Traveled to Europe this past off-season with an FCA group . . . Married, wife Carol.

TIM GRAY

Safety Ht: 6-1 Wt: 205

How Acquired: Trade (Mike Sensibaugh and Marvin Upshaw to St. Louis—1976)

College: Texas A&M

NFL Experience: 5

Birthdate: November 11, 1952

Birthplace: Houston, Texas

Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Gray led the Chiefs in interceptions last season with six and also had the longest runback, 61 yards vs. Denver . . . Also picked off two passes for 50 yards in returns in the Chiefs 23-0 shutout of San Diego . . . Gray equaled his career interception total last year and now stands at 12 through three seasons of regular duty . . . He was the eighth leading tackler on the club with 71 total stops, 55 unassisted . . . His '77 season was productive from several standpoints . . . Gray recovered two fumbles and returned them for scores, set up a third score with one of his four quarterback sacks and had two interceptions . . . He appeared in 14 games last year, missing the final game of the season with a shoulder injury . . . Gray won the starting strong safety spot shortly after coming over from St. Louis in a trade . . . Gray was the Cardinals first round draftee in 1975, but spent his rookie season on exclusive special team duty . . . He and Gary Barbaro teamed at safety in 1976 and both earned reputations as hard-hitting defenders . . . Gray was a consensus all-Southwest Conference selection and a second team All-America choice by Newspaper Enterprise Assn. as a senior . . . Started two years at Texas A&M after transferring from Navarro (Tex.) Junior College . . . Played defensive back at Kashmere H.S. in Houston . . . Majored in physical education . . . Married, wife Beverly, two children.

GARY GREEN

Cornerback Ht: 5-11 Wt: 184

How Acquired: Draft (No. 1-1977)

College: Baylor

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: October 22, 1955

Birthplace: San Antonio, Texas

Residence: Waco, Texas

In two seasons, Green has become a dominant member of the Chiefs secondary . . . He had only one interception in 1978, giving him four in two years, but drew considerable respect from opposing quarterbacks . . . Started in all 16 contests at left corner and has played in all but three games of his short career . . . A sure tackler, Green had 53 stops total with 49 unassisted . . . Led the team in opposition fumbles recovered with two as 12 other players had one each . . . In addition to his work at corner, Green excelled in several facets of special team play . . . He blocked one field goal attempt and was responsible for two other conversion blocks . . . Returned one punt for a six-yard return . . . After his first season, he was voted the team's Mack Lee Hill Award as the outstanding first-year player . . . He's the second of three straight defensive players to win the rookie of the year trophy . . . The 10th player selected in the first round of the '77 draft, Green earned first team All-America honors in all quarters save UPI as a senior . . . He was the first defensive back selected on the opening round by the Chiefs since Jim Marsalis in 1969 . . . Green played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl, returning a punt in the latter contest 65 yards for a touchdown . . . A younger brother, Tony, signed with the Chiefs as a free agent last spring . . . Majored in physical education, though Green also has a minor in speech/radio-television . . . Attended Sam Houston H.S. in San Antonio.

DARIUS HELTON

Guard Ht: 6-2 Wt: 249

How Acquired: Draft (No. 4c-1977)

College: North Carolina Central

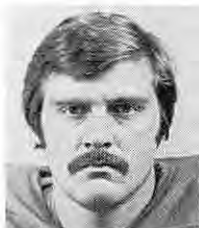

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: October 2, 1954

Birthplace: Charlotte, North Carolina

Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Injuries the past two seasons have prevented Helton from making a stronger contribution to the club's offensive line . . . He missed all of last season on injured reserve after undergoing surgery for a training camp shoulder separation . . . Prior to that time, Helton had been impressive in returning from a 1977 shoulder injury that shelved him after six regular season games . . . When healthy, Helton has impressed with his blocking and control of the line of scrimmage and it would appear that he'll be heard from if he can remain injury-free . . . He was a tackle in his college days, but made the switch to guard in the pros . . . He was a first team choice in the Mideastern Athletic Conference as a senior following a second team mention the previous season . . . A three-time lineman of the week award winner in 1976 for his performances against Elizabeth City State, Virginia State and North Carolina A&T . . . Spent a portion of the off-season in Florida, rehabilitating his shoulder . . . Attended Chapel Hill H.S. in Chapel Hill, N.C. . . . Married, wife Cathy.

MATT HERKENHOFF

Tackle Ht: 6-4 Wt: 270

How Acquired: Draft (No. 4-1974)

College: Minnesota

NFL Experience: 4

Birthdate: April 12, 1951

Birthplace: Melrose, Minnesota

Residence: Bloomington, Minnesota

Herkenhoff steadily has developed into one of the most dependable yet unsung players at his position . . . Last season possibly was his best as he and the offensive line provided the blocking impetus for the Chiefs running game and helped cut the number of quarterback sacks from 48 to 21 . . . A starter since 1977, Herkenhoff has now opened at left tackle in 42 successive contests, despite playing much of '78 with a severely bruised shoulder . . . Drafted in 1974, his appearance in a Chiefs uniform was delayed two seasons . . . He signed with the New York Stars of the late World Football League in '74, shifted to Charlotte with the Stars, then reported to Kansas City when the season ended . . . He spent all of 1975 on injured reserve with an ankle problem before earning his chance to play the following year . . . A two-year starter at left tackle for Minnesota, Herkenhoff was voted the Gophers most valuable offensive player at the conclusion of the 1973 season . . . Earned honorable mention honors in all-Big Ten balloting . . . Played tight end at Melrose H.S. in Melrose, Minn. . . Majored in sociology and tends to several business ventures in the Minneapolis area during the off-season . . . Single.

SYLVESTER HICKS

Defensive End Ht: 6-4 Wt: 252

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2-1978)

College: Tennessee State

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: April 2, 1955

Birthplace: Jackson, Tennessee

Residence: Jackson, Tennessee

Hicks installed himself as the Chiefs starting right defensive end as he and top draftee Art Still became the nucleus of the team's all-new front three . . . The first player chosen on the second round and the 29th pick overall, Hicks tied for second in quarterback sacks with 5½ and was seventh in tackles . . . He had 72 total, with 46 solo efforts, and also recovered a fumble . . . Chiefs coaches felt he played well as a rookie and figure additional experience will blend nicely with proven physical abilities . . . As a senior at Tennessee State, Hicks tied for second in tackles with 44 and had five quarterback sacks for a team that was second in NCAA in team defense . . . Pass rushing is considered one of his main strengths . . . He was named the outstanding defensive player at Tennessee State after his senior year . . . Majored in health and physical education and returned to school this past off-season to finish work on his degree . . . Attended Northside H.S. in Jackson, Tenn. . . . Single.

THOMAS HOWARD

Linebacker Ht: 6-2 Wt: 208

How Acquired: Draft (No. 3-1977)

College: Texas Tech

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: August 18, 1954

Birthplace: Lubbock, Texas

Residence: Lubbock, Texas

Howard moved into a starter's role in his second season at right outside linebacker . . . From that slot, he tied with Sylvester Hicks for second place in quarterback sacks with 5½, recovered a fumble and was in fourth place among tacklers with 106 stops, 79 on his own . . . Has intercepted a pass each of the last two seasons . . . Howard was the starter in all 16 games in 1978 and opened in three as a rookie, when he spent most of the season backing up the now-retired Jim Lynch at right linebacker . . . A three-year letterman at Texas Tech, he started his college career as a defensive end, but moved to linebacker prior to his junior season . . . Twice in college he totaled 17 tackles in a single game . . . Earned AP lineman of the week honors for his play in Texas Tech's 1976 season opener vs. Colorado, whose number one running back was Tony Reed . . . Howard was selected to the all-Southwest Conference team as a senior and played a major role in shoring up a Tech defense that helped propel the Red Raiders to a 10-1 season, co-championship of the SWC and a berth opposite Nebraska in the Bluebonnet Bowl . . . Lettered three years in football and two in track at Dunbar H.S. in Lubbock . . . As a senior, he recorded the fastest 120-yard high hurdles time in the nation, 13.7 seconds . . . Single.

CHARLES JACKSON

Linebacker Ht: 6-2 Wt: 220

How Acquired: Waivers (from Denver)

College: Washington

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: March 22, 1955

Birthplace: Berkeley, California

Residence: Seattle, Washington

A late cut of the Denver Broncos last year, Jackson joined the Chiefs at the opening of the regular season . . . Played primarily in special team situations, but saw some action at outside linebacker later on in the year . . . Totaled 14 solo tackles as he took part in all 16 games . . . He was a ninth round draft choice of the Broncos in 1977 and was originally tried at nose tackle . . . Injured a knee that year and was placed on injured reserve . . . Jackson earned second team all-Pacific 8 honors in 1975 and was an AP honorable mention All-America selection . . . Attended Berkeley H.S. in Berkeley, Calif. . . . Single.

STAN JOHNSON

Nose Tackle Ht: 6-4 Wt: 257

How Acquired: Trade (Draft choice to Los Angeles—1978)

College: Tennessee State

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: June 18, 1955

Birthplace: Sandusky, Ohio

Residence: Blue Springs, Missouri

Johnson performed in a backup capacity at both defensive end and nose tackle after coming to Kansas City in a preseason trade . . . He'd been drafted on the second round in 1978 by Los Angeles, then was traded to the Chiefs for a 1979 third draft choice . . . He was a college teammate of Sylvester Hicks, the club's second round draftee a year ago . . . Johnson worked virtually all of the offseason in a weight program coordinated by new strength coach Rick Abernethy . . . Played in both the Shrine East-West Game and Senior Bowl after his senior year.

BILL KELLAR

Wide Receiver Ht: 5-11 Wt: 194

How Acquired: Draft (No. 7b-1978)

College: Stanford

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: February 8, 1956

Birthplace: Longview, Washington

Residence: Hillsboro, Oregon

Kellar made the final roster as a backup receiver and special teams performer, but a knee injury ended his season after five games . . . Did not have a reception in his short regular season stint, but had one for 17 yards during preseason . . . Kellar was Kansas City's second selection on the seventh round a year ago . . . While at Stanford, he paired with James Lofton (drafted first by Green Bay) to give the Cardinals a potent wide receiver tandem . . . Does not possess superb speed, but is deceptive in getting open and runs accurate patterns . . . As a senior, Kellar was on the receiving end of 46 passes to rank 19th among NCAA receivers . . . Had a total of 91 receptions and four touchdowns in three varsity seasons . . . In high school, led Hillsboro (Ore.) to the state championship by catching 78 passes for 1,400 yards . . . Single.

WILLIE LEE

Defensive End Ht: 6-4 Wt: 257

How Acquired: Draft (No. 5a-1976)

College: Bethune-Cookman

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: July 13, 1950

Birthplace: Daytona Beach, Florida

Residence: Daytona Beach, Florida

Lee's season ended just as it was getting started . . . A defensive end his first two years in the league, he was tried at nose tackle, with results, in training camp . . . But he tore knee ligaments in the first preseason game at Green Bay, required surgery, and spent the year on injured reserve . . . The knee has healed and Lee is ready for another bid at either defensive end or nose tackle . . . As a second-year player in 1977, Lee accounted for five quarterback sacks, ranking second on the team . . . Also recovered two fumbles and rang up 67 tackles, 51 on his own . . . He was a 26-year-old rookie when he reported to the Chiefs, having played three years of service football prior to attending Bethune-Cookman . . . Spent the off-season undergoing continued rehabilitation for his knee in Florida . . . Attended Campbell H.S. in Daytona Beach . . . Married, wife Sonja.

DAVE LINDSTROM

Defensive End Ht: 6-6 Wt: 257

How Acquired: Waivers (from San Diego—1978)

College: Boston University

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: November 16, 1954

Birthplace: Cambridge, Massachusetts

Residence: Overland Park, Kansas

A late cut of the San Diego Chargers last year, Lindstrom reported to Kansas City and played both on the defensive line and special teams . . . Worked primarily on the kicking units, but saw additional time at defensive end as the season progressed, especially on pass rushing situations . . . He was a sixth round San Diego draft choice in 1977, but was on the injured reserve list the full year . . . The Chiefs claimed him in the final, no-recall waiver late last summer . . . Appeared in all 16 games . . . Worked during the off-season under the tutelage of strength coach Rick Abernethy . . . Married, wife Mary.

MIKE LIVINGSTON

Quarterback Ht: 6-4 Wt: 210

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2-1968)

College: Southern Methodist

NFL Experience: 12

Birthdate: November 14, 1945

Birthplace: Dallas, Texas

Residence: Leawood, Kansas

Livingston moves into his fifth year as the Chiefs starting quarterback . . . He ranked 13th among AFC passers a year ago, starting in 14 of 16 regular season games . . . Gave way to Tony Adams for two games at midseason . . . Statistically, his .548 completion average was second best of his career, but overall passing yardage and touchdown passes both dropped . . . Part of the reason for the decline was the club's run-oriented Wing-T offense and the fact many passes went to running backs . . . Marv Levy has indicated an improved passing attack is a priority for 1979 . . . Livingston's top '78 efforts came in late season outings at San Diego and vs. Seattle at Arrowhead . . . Against Chargers, completed 19 of 28 passes for 224 yards, then connected on 18 of 33 for 231 and a touchdown vs. Seahawks . . . Interception total was 13, though six came in two games vs. Oakland and at Seattle . . . Threw two touchdown passes in Chiefs 23-0 win over San Diego, completing 13 of 21 for 136 yards . . . Livingston's best Chiefs season was 1976 . . . He completed 189 of 338 attempts for 2,682 yards and 12 touchdowns . . . He has thrown for 300 or more yards on two occasions, most recently in '76 at Washington when he completed 15-of-29 for 332 yards and two touchdowns, including a 37-yard "flea-flicker" pass that won the game with less than a minute to play . . . The other was in 1969, 308 yards vs. the Miami Dolphins . . . That contest was highlighted by the longest pass play in Chiefs history . . . Livingston passed to Otis Taylor for 79 yards, who then lateraled to Robert Holmes to complete a 93-yard pass play . . . For the most part, Livingston has stayed injury-free the last two years . . . After seven years in the shadows as Len Dawson's backup, Livingston claimed the number one job for himself in 1975 . . . He was injured in the season opener, but returned two games later to lead the Chiefs to a 42-10 rout of the Oakland Raiders at Arrowhead, the first victory for Paul Wiggins as Chiefs head coach . . . Livingston then led the Chiefs to four victories in six games before injuring the cruciate ligament in his left knee at Pittsburgh, requiring surgery that sidelined him for the balance of the season . . . Livingston first came to prominence as Dawson's backup in the 1969 Super Bowl season . . . When Dawson was injured in the second game of that year, Livingston engineered six consecutive victories after an initial loss to Cincinnati . . . Ranks second to Dawson in career touchdown passes with 55 and has thrown three in one game on three occasions . . . His longest effort last year was a 44-yard screen pass to MacArthur Lane in the closing moments of the Seattle game in Kansas City . . . Adept as a runner, Livingston has scored at least one touchdown each of the last four years and twice has had the team's longest run from scrimmage for a season . . . He had a 51-yard jaunt in 1972, then a 28-yard advance the following year . . . Has rushed for seven touchdowns for a career in which he's carried for 678 yards on 154 carries . . . Ranks behind Dawson in career passing attempts (1,661), completions (868), yards gained passing (10,826), touchdown passes (55) and interceptions (79) . . . His 189 completions in '76 are fourth best in Chiefs history . . . Livingston broke most of Don Meredith's passing records while at SMU . . . During the off-season, he devotes most of his time to golf and plays regularly in tournament competition . . . Playing out of Wolf Creek Golf Club, Livingston has reached the sectional qualifying round for the U.S. Open and has competed in both the Kansas and Missouri amateurs . . . He and teammates Emmitt Thomas and Jan Stenerud finished second in the NFLPA golf tourney this past winter . . . Also plays in virtually all tournaments in the Kansas City area and several celebrity competitions around the country . . . Along with Tony Reed, Livingston served as co-captain of the Chiefs basketball squad that defeated the Royals in the first Challenge of Champions game last January . . . Attended South Oak Cliff H.S. in Dallas, which later produced Chiefs cornerback Tim Collier . . . Married, wife Pat, three children.

JEFF LLOYD

Nose Tackle Ht: 6-6 Wt: 257

How Acquired: Free Agent

College: West Texas State

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: March 14, 1954

Birthplace: St. Mary's Pennsylvania

Residence: Canyon, Texas

The Chiefs signed Lloyd as a free agent prior to training camp a year ago . . . Made the club as a defensive line reserve, appearing in all 16 games and starting in four . . . Had one quarterback sack for a loss of 16 yards . . . Lloyd accumulated 36 total tackles, 26 unassisted . . . Came into the NFL as a third round draftee of Seattle in 1976, but was waived during preseason that year . . . Moved to Buffalo on waivers, then played sparingly as a backup defensive tackle . . . Bills placed him on waivers in '77 and he sat out that season before being picked up by Kansas City . . . At West Texas State, played on offense and was an all-Missouri Valley Conference selection two years, first as a tackle, then as a tight end . . . Majored in business management . . . Attended Cameron County H.S. in Emporium, Pa. . . Married, wife Mary Lou.

HENRY MARSHALL

Wide Receiver Ht: 6-2 Wt: 214

How Acquired: Draft (No. 3d-1976)

College: Missouri

NFL Experience: 4

Birthdate: August 9, 1954

Birthplace: Broxton, Georgia

Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Getting the football in Marshall's hands more often is a top priority with the passing game for 1979 . . . Marshall's '78 catch output, 26, was similar to those of his first two seasons and the Chiefs starting wide receiver now has 77 receptions to his credit over three years . . . His yardage totals have been remarkably consistent, 443, 445 and 433 . . . Marshall's top day a year ago was vs. Tampa Bay, five catches for 89 yards and a touchdown . . . Next was a four-catch, 78-yard showing vs. Seattle . . . Caught his longest pass of the year, 40 yards, in the finale at Seattle . . . Had at least one reception in 11 of 16 games, suffering only one dry spell early in the year when he had no catches in three straight games . . . Caught a 29-yard touchdown pass, his longest scoring effort, in Kansas City's 23-0 win over San Diego . . . Marshall was the club's fourth leading receiver a year ago and the top wide receiver . . . Those above him included two running backs and tight end Walter White . . . His 16.7-yard average led all receivers with 20 or more receptions . . . Has rushed 13 times, mostly on end-around plays . . . In 1976, he turned in the club's longest run from scrimmage, a 59-yard end-around touchdown against Miami that pulled the Chiefs ahead in a game they later won in overtime . . . Marshall came to the Chiefs on a third round draft pick obtained from Houston in the Curley Culp trade . . . An outstanding senior season at Missouri caught scouts attention and more than offset a mediocre junior year, when he caught only five passes . . . Upped that to 44 receptions, 945 yards and nine touchdowns with a long of 75 yards . . . Marshall has continued the legendary tradition of No. 89—first worn by Chiefs' scout Otis Taylor . . . He possesses a smooth, fluid stride reminiscent of Taylor, the Chiefs leading alltime receiver . . . Marshall received honorable mention All-America recognition in 1975 from AP and UPI . . . Participated in Blue-Gray and Hula Bowl games following his senior season . . . A basketball player in high school, Marshall was the leading scorer for the Chiefs in their victory over the Royals this winter in the Challenge of Champions basketball benefit . . . Attended Hillcrest H.S. in Dalzell, S.C. . . . Single.

TED McKNIGHT

Running Back Ht: 6-1 Wt: 216

How Acquired: Waivers (from Oakland)

College: Minnesota-Duluth

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: February 26, 1954

Birthplace: Duluth, Minnesota

Residence: Lenexa, Kansas

Not coincidental with the emergence of the Chiefs Wing-T offense was the explosive charge of McKnight . . . Carrying only 104 times, he averaged six yards per carry, scored five touchdowns and gave every indication he'll be a part of the Chiefs offensive backfield for some time . . . McKnight's per-game carries reached double figures only once, but that resulted in a 104-yard effort vs. San Diego on 11 attempts . . . Carried for 70 yards on eight tries at Pittsburgh . . . Also caught 14 passes, with five coming against the Chargers at Arrowhead . . . Scored a 41-yard touchdown rushing vs. Tampa Bay . . . Also was used briefly on kickoff returns, with three for a 21.7 average . . . The Chiefs obtained McKnight on waivers from Oakland in 1977 . . . He'd been a second round draft choice of the Raiders, who let him go just prior to the start of the regular season . . . Played mostly on special teams as a rookie and had the club's longest kickoff return of the year, 70 yards, while leading in kick returns with a 25.4 average . . . McKnight was the top rusher in Minnesota-Duluth history with 2,963 yards in four seasons . . . He was the NCAA Division II rushing leader in 1976 with 1,482 yards on 220 carries and 22 touchdowns . . . Also led Division II scorers with 144 points . . . Interested in theatre and film work . . . Attended Duluth Central H.S. in Duluth, Minn. . . . Married, wife Dawn, one child.

How Acquired: Free Agent

College: Hawaii

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: March 27, 1952

Birthplace: Honolulu, Hawaii

Residence: Honolulu, Hawaii

One of the surprises of the Chiefs 1978 season was the play of Morgado, who came off the bench to win regular duty . . . He was a special teams player over the first seven games, but a start vs. Cleveland launched an outstanding second half of the year . . . Carried for 74 yards on 18 carries vs. the Browns, then 74 more the following week at Pittsburgh and was a starter the rest of the way . . . Most impressive outing was at San Diego in Chiefs overtime loss . . . Morgado carried 29 times for 115 yards and scored two touchdowns . . . Also ran for 78 yards on 20 carries in Chiefs win over Buffalo . . . Of his 593 yards rushing for the season, 566 came in the nine-game span in which he started . . . He originally made the club on the basis of his special team play . . . Suffered a training camp injury that restricted his workout and playing time, but enough was thought of his kicking team work to merit a spot on the final 45-man roster . . . Morgado's first NFL experience was at San Diego . . . He failed on a free agent try there in 1976, then made the Chiefs in '77 as a special teamer and backup ballcarrier . . . His seven touchdowns last year led all scorers save for kicker Jan Stenerud . . . Performed creditably on the special teams even after assuming regular duty . . . Returned five kickoffs for 20-yard average and had 10 tackles . . . Morgado was signed by the Chiefs at the behest of Les Miller, who observed him while in Hawaii for the Hula Bowl workouts . . . Morgado began his college career at Michigan State, but transferred to Hawaii to complete his eligibility . . . Attended Punahou H.S. in Honolulu . . . Single.

JIM NICHOLSON

Tackle Ht: 6-6 Wt: 275

How Acquired: Trade (Draft choice to Los Angeles-1974)

College: Michigan State

NFL Experience: 6

Birthdate: February 28, 1949

Birthplace: Honolulu, Hawaii

Residence: Ewa Beach, Hawaii

A regular within the Chiefs offensive line since 1974, Nicholson was restricted to six games a year ago . . . He suffered a knee injury vs. Tampa Bay that did not require surgery but did land him on the injured reserve list for the balance of the season . . . It was the first extended playing time Nicholson had missed in five years, though his knees have given him trouble in the past . . . Prior to the injury, he'd started 32 of the previous 34 contests . . . One of the team's highest-grading pass blockers, Nicholson came to Kansas City in exchange for a fifth round 1975 draft choice from Los Angeles, which had drafted him ninth in 1973 . . . He spent that year on the Rams reserve squad, then was traded to the Chiefs during the '74 preseason . . . When Dave Hill was injured early in the regular season, Nicholson took over his tackle spot and has been there ever since . . . Played guard, tackle and tight end at Michigan State . . . Missed the 1971 college season due to back surgery . . . Serves as the Chiefs player representative . . . Interests include golf, which he took up after he came to the Chiefs and has developed into a fine player since then . . . Moved this off-season to his native Hawaii . . . Attended St. Louis H.S. in Honolulu . . . Married, wife Janet.

DON PARRISH

Nose Tackle Ht: 6-2 Wt: 249

How Acquired: Free Agent

College: Pittsburgh

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: April 6, 1955

Birthplace: Tallahassee, Florida

Residence: Tallahassee, Florida

Parrish was without a job when the Chiefs played their first regular season game, but by the time they played their last, his teammates had voted him the Mack Lee Hill Award . . . Parrish's strange saga began in the training camp of the Atlanta Falcons, who'd drafted him 12th in 1977 . . . Parrish was a late cut of the Falcons in '78 and almost went to Canada before the Chiefs signed him prior to the second regular season game . . . Parrish gradually moved into a starting slot at nose tackle and was a convincing winner as the team's rookie of the year as voted upon by the veteran players . . . Finished as the fifth leading tackler on the club with 91, 68 unassisted . . . Also contributed two quarterback sacks for 18 yards in losses and recovered a fumble . . . He spent all of the '77 season on Atlanta's injured reserve list nursing a hand injury . . . Parrish played on Pitt's 1976 national championship team and was a teammate of Heisman winner Tony Dorsett . . . Played with particular effectiveness against the run last year and helped lower the average rush against the Chiefs from 4.69 in '77 to 3.98 last year . . . Attended Amos Godby H.S. in Tallahassee . . . Single.

WHITNEY PAUL

Linebacker Ht: 6-3 Wt: 220

How Acquired: Draft (No. 10-1976)

College: Colorado

NFL Experience: 4

Birthdate: October 8, 1953

Birthplace: Galveston, Texas

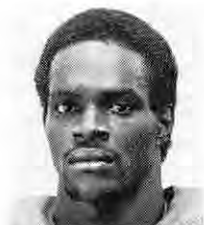

Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

In his first season at a new position, Paul became one of the club's defensive strengths . . . Playing left outside linebacker in the Chiefs 3-4 defense, Paul intercepted three passes for 21 yards in returns . . . One came in the waning stages of Kansas City's 14-10 win over Buffalo as the Bills were attempting to move in front . . . Also racked up four quarterback sacks with 34½ yards in losses and recovered one fumble . . . Started all 16 games after being switched from defensive end, where he'd played his first two pro seasons . . . He began his rookie year as the 43rd man on a 43-man roster, but earned his first start in week seven of that year and started every game but one since that time . . . Has a total of 11 sacks in three years . . . He was switched to linebacker to take advantage of his quickness, a primary asset . . . Paul's now appeared in 44 consecutive contests over three years . . . At the time he made the position change, he was considered the Chiefs top down lineman and is the only member of that group still with Kansas City today . . . Took part in 88 tackles a year ago, 56 on his own . . . Made a rapid adjustment to linebacker . . . Paul was a two-year starter at Colorado and was one of 10 CU players drafted in 1976 . . . Played in college with and was one year ahead of teammate Tony Reed . . . He began his college career as a sophomore tight end but switched to defense his last two seasons . . . Participated in the high jump and shot put in addition to football at Ball H.S. in Galveston . . . Also high-jumped at CU with a lifetime best of 6-10 . . . Majored in recreation . . . Single.

How Acquired: Trade (John Brockington to Detroit—1978)

College: Jackson State

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: August 3, 1951

Birthplace: Columbia, Mississippi

Residence: Columbia, Mississippi

Payton came to the Chiefs in a training camp transaction that sent John Brockington to the Lions . . . He was with the Chiefs through the final cutdown, was waived, and then brought back to the team after Larry Marshall suffered a knee injury in the second regular season game . . . Payton went on to finish the year with the Chiefs and led the team in both punt and kickoff returns . . . His 11.4 average on 32 punt returns was good for fourth in the AFC and the 32 returns set a new Chiefs record, topping the 31 by Larry Brunson in 1976 . . . Payton was also fourth in kickoff returns in the AFC with a 25.8 average . . . His long was a 66-yard effort vs. Tampa Bay . . . Top punt return was 39 yards vs. Cleveland . . . Payton is the older brother of Chicago Bears rushing star Walter Payton . . . He began his NFL career with the Cleveland Browns in 1977, but was released after the first three games of the year . . . Hooked on and finished the year at Detroit, where he had a spectacular final game vs. Minnesota in '77 . . . Against the Vikings before a national television audience, Payton ran back a kickoff 98 yards for one touchdown then a punt 87 yards for another . . . Spent the past off-season working on a master's degree . . . One of his hobbies is golf . . . Attended Columbia H.S. in Columbia, Miss. . . . Single.

TONY REED

Running Back Ht: 5-10 Wt: 197

How Acquired: Draft (No. 2-1977)

College: Colorado

NFL Experience: 3

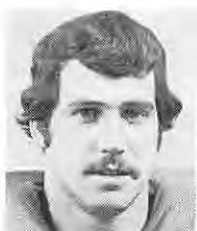

Birthdate: March 30, 1955

Birthplace: San Francisco, California

Residence: Overland Park, Kansas

Reed's 1,053 yards rushing and overall 1978 performance helped the Chiefs Wing-T rushing offense receive national prominence . . . Reed turned in the club's best rushing effort in over a decade as he had three 100-yard-plus games and two others that resulted in 97 yards . . . Top outing was a 16-carry, 141-yard day vs. Houston, then followed up with 114 yards on 14 carries at New York Giants . . . Reed saved another prime showing until the season finale at Seattle . . . Going into the contest, he was 68 yards shy of 1,000, then crossed the barrier on a 62-yard run for a touchdown, the longest rush of his two-year career . . . Reed's year is especially notable in considering his yards per carry ratio . . . He was sixth among AFC rushers, but carried a 5.1 average per carry . . . Next best among those in the top six was leader Earl Campbell, who averaged 4.8 . . . Only 27 yards separated Reed from fourth place in the conference . . . Led the Chiefs both in rushing and pass receiving, catching 48 for a 10.1 average . . . Last Chief to lead in both categories was MacArthur Lane in 1976 . . . Reed's top pass-catching day was at San Diego, nine receptions for 91 yards in the overtime contest vs. Chargers . . . Reed's 1,053 yards rushing rank second in Chiefs annals behind Mike Garrett's, 1,087 in 1967 . . . His 206 seasonal carries are fourth alltime . . . Reed now has four 100-yard games in two seasons . . . Directly in front of him are Garrett with seven and Ed Podolak with eight . . . Reed graduated to regular duty as a sophomore after sharing the running back slot with the now-retired Podolak as a rookie . . . He started all 16 games in '78 and opened in eight of 14 the year before . . . Reed's two consecutive 100-yard outings in '78 marked only the second time in club history that feat has been achieved; Garrett was the first to do so in '67 . . . As a part-time starter in 1977, Reed carried for 505 yards and also caught 12 passes for 125 yards . . . Scored seven touchdowns last year, six rushing and one passing . . . Reed came to the Chiefs on a second-round selection in '77 draft . . . He was the third running back taken, behind Tampa Bay's Ricky Bell and Dallas's Tony Dorsett, who went one-two in the first round . . . Reed finished second in Big Eight 1976 rushing with 264 carries for 1,210 yards, 4.6 average and five touchdowns . . . Earned all-Big Eight recognition from both AP and UPI and was named to AP's second team All-America squad . . . Rushed for 100 or more yards nine times in his Colorado career . . . Played in two bowl games with the Buffaloes, 1976 Bluebonnet Bowl vs. Texas and 1977 Orange Bowl vs. Ohio State . . . Reed transferred to CU from Antelope Valley (Calif.) Junior College . . . In '74, he was first team JC All-America, rushing for 1,814 yards and 22 touchdowns for an 11-0 squad that won the California junior college championship . . . He has lived in several areas around the world and attended Chofu H.S. in Tokyo, Japan, where his father was stationed with the U.S. Air Force . . . Received no scholarship offers out of high school, so enrolled at Antelope Valley . . . Served as co-captain of the Chiefs basketball squad that defeated the Royals in the Challenge of Champions benefit game last winter . . . Married, wife Jackie.

How Acquired: Draft (No. 15-1976)

College: New Hampshire

NFL Experience: 4

Birthdate: April 25, 1954

Birthplace: Lawrence, Massachusetts

Residence: Salem, New Hampshire

Rozumek won a starting job at right inside linebacker last year as Kansas City moved to the 3-4 defense . . . Prior to that, his value had been with his specialty team play . . . He finished third in total tackles with 113, 69 on his own and 44 assists . . . Also was responsible for 1½ sacks and recovered an opposition fumble . . . Rozumek was cut once from the Chiefs before making it on a second try . . . He survived his initial training camp until the final cutdown, then was brought back in midseason of 1976 . . . Stayed with the club all the way in '77, appearing in 14 games and accounting for 33 tackles, mostly on special team duty . . . He opened in every game in '78 . . . Rozumek was a three-year starter at left linebacker for New Hampshire, captaining the team his senior year . . . Picked off his first two pro interceptions last year, with five yards in returns . . . Intercepted three passes in college . . . His biggest asset is a highly competitive nature that helps compensate for what he lacks in size . . . Has played linebacker throughout his career, high school, college and pro . . . Majored in physical education . . . Active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes . . . Attended Lawrence H.S. in Lawrence, Mass. . . . Married, wife Cathy.

JACK RUDNAY

Center Ht: 6-2 Wt: 242

How Acquired: Draft (No. 4-1969)

College: Northwestern

NFL Experience: 10

Birthdate: November 20, 1947

Birthplace: Cleveland, Ohio

Residence: Lee's Summit, Missouri

The senior member of the Chiefs offensive line moves into his 10th season with the club . . . Particularly notable about Rudnay is the fact he has not missed a regular season game in nine seasons . . . That's a string of 128 games in succession and ranks fourth on the Chiefs longevity list . . . Rudnay has started in all but one of those contests, giving way at Buffalo in 1976, though he later appeared in that contest . . . Ironically, his career began on an injury note . . . He suffered a back injury in the College All-Star camp in 1969 and missed the Chiefs Super Bowl season as a result . . . Rudnay replaced E. J. Holub as the starting center midway through the 1970 season and won the Mack Lee Hill Award that year . . . The Chiefs have never drafted a center higher than they did Rudnay, who played both center and defensive tackle in college . . . Rudnay has appeared in four AFC-NFC Pro Bowl Games and was the last Chiefs player to be selected for the game . . . Now one of the oldest members of the club in point of service, Rudnay was the youngest member of the offensive line when he took over as a starter nine years ago . . . Rudnay is extremely active in charitable affairs, most of which receive little or no fanfare . . . Serves as honorary chairman of the Special Olympics for retarded children and has worked closely with other charitable causes in the area . . . Also engineers a ticket purchase plan with other Chiefs players whereby underprivileged children attend home games . . . Enjoys hunting and fishing and is also an accomplished skier . . . Rudnay's also the proud owner of a completely restored 1955 Chevrolet . . . Attended Kenston H.S. in Chagrin Falls, O. . . Married, wife Polly, two children.

TONY SAMUELS

Tight End Ht: 6-4 Wt: 233

How Acquired: Draft (No. 4b-1977)

College: Bethune-Cookman

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: December 30, 1954

Birthplace: Tampa, Florida

Residence: Daytona Beach, Florida

Samuels was employed mostly in special team and extra blocking situations while backing up Walter White . . . Ended the 1978 season with six receptions for 97 yards, with a 38-yard long . . . He was one of four selections on the fourth round of the '77 draft, the others being Mark Bailey, Darius Helton and Eric Harris, who's still in Canada . . . Accounted for nine tackles on special team duty . . . Samuels began his college career at Florida A&M, but transferred after one season to Bethune-Cookman . . . His mother is a physical education instructor there . . . He had helped defeat B-C as a freshman, catching two touchdown passes for Florida A&M . . . Played in a predominantly wishbone offense in college, yet still caught 41 passes for 1,300 yards and seven touchdowns . . . Played at B-C with current Chiefs teammate Willie Lee . . . Majored in physical education . . . Attended Northeast H.S. in St. Petersburg, Fla. . . Single.

CLARENCE SANDERS

Linebacker Ht: 6-4 Wt: 228

How Acquired: Free Agent

College: Cincinnati

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: December 28, 1952

Birthplace: Montgomery, Alabama

Residence: Cincinnati, Ohio

Sanders earned a spot on the roster as a backup linebacker and special teams performer . . . Came to training camp as one of several free agent hopefuls and impressed with his play on kicking teams . . . Had 44 tackles for the season, 36 solo and also recovered an opponent fumble . . . Also returned two short kickoffs for 15 yards . . . Sanders came into the NFL on the 17th and last round of the 1976 draft by San Diego . . . The Chargers released him during training camp, but he was claimed by the New York Jets . . . An ankle injury placed him on the Jets injured reserve list . . . Jets moved him from linebacker to defensive tackle in '77, then released him before the start of the regular season . . . Did not play in '77, working instead in a friend's veterinary clinic in Cincinnati . . . A troublesome knee that required surgery twice prior to his senior year cost him greatly . . . Sanders missed his last year of college due to the knee and had been considered a top prospect prior to the damage . . . Appeared in all 16 games, starting in one late-season contest a year ago . . . Played football at George Washington Carver H.S. in Montgomery, Ala. . . Single.

BOB SIMMONS

Guard Ht: 6-4 Wt: 260

How Acquired: Free Agent

College: Texas

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: July 7, 1954

Birthplace: Temple, Texas

Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Simmons has held forth at the left guard slot over the past two seasons . . . He earned a starting role in the fourth game of the 1977 season and has retained it ever since . . . Played in all 16 games last year, opening in 15 . . . Chiefs coaches point to the offensive line as one of the keys to the running game success a year ago and Simmons was a main factor . . . He reported to the Chiefs as a free agent, though he'd been drafted on the third round by New Orleans in 1976 . . . He suffered an ankle injury that year, then the Saints inexplicably placed him on waivers . . . Simmons originally made the squad as a backup, but took over for Charlie Getty in the starting lineup . . . He was named to the all-Southwest Conference team each of the three seasons he played at Texas . . . Following senior year, was named to first team All-America squads by AP and UPI . . . Simmons took part in two Cotton Bowl games, the Gator Bowl, Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl and Hula Bowl during his Longhorn career . . . Captained the '75 Texas squad . . . Served as local chairman for the Muscular Dystrophy fund-raising efforts during the off-season . . . Also worked regularly in a weight program designed by Chiefs strength coach Rick Abernethy . . . Attended Temple H.S. in Temple, Tex. . . Married, wife Sherry, two children, twin girls born this past spring.

J. T. SMITH

How Acquired: Free Agent

College: North Texas State

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: October 29, 1955

Birthplace: Leonard, Texas

Residence: Big Spring, Texas

Smith divided his time last year between the Chiefs and Washington Redskins . . . He joined the Redskins as a free agent and saw duty in several areas, notably defensive back, running back, wide receiver and kick returner . . . Played six games with Washington prior to being released, then signed with the Chiefs as a free agent and appeared in six more . . . Played strictly on special teams with the Chiefs and accounted for six tackles overall . . . Smith will be tested both at wide receiver and as a kick returner come training camp . . . Attended Big Spring H.S. in Big Spring, Tex.

GARY SPANI

Linebacker Ht: 6-2 Wt: 230

How Acquired: Draft (No. 3-1978)

College: Kansas State

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: January 9, 1956

Birthplace: Satanta, Kansas

Residence: Lee's Summit, Missouri

Spani was one of the new faces who made a difference in Kansas City's defense . . . For starters, he led the team in tackles with 144, 102 unassisted, from his right inside linebacker position . . . Also recovered a fumble and blocked a conversion attempt on specialty duty . . . Along with numbers one and two draftees Art Still and Sylvester Hicks, Spani helped solidify and improve a Chiefs defensive unit that had ranked as the worst in the NFL . . . Making tackles is nothing new to Spani, who totaled 545 in four varsity years at Kansas State . . . He was the very first consensus All-America in K-State football history and a three-time all-Big Eight performer . . . Moved directly from college to a starting position with the Chiefs and played in 14 of 16 contests, 13 as a starter . . . He was UPI's Big Eight defensive player of the year in 1977 . . . Spani proved particularly adept against the run . . . Played in the Shrine East-West Game, Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl all-star contests . . . Served as chairman of the Kansas Lung Association fund-raising effort this past off-season . . . Attended Manhattan H.S. in Manhattan, Ks. . . . Single.

JAN STENERUD

Kicker Ht: 6-2 Wt: 187

How Acquired: Draft (No. 3-Future-1966)

College: Montana State

NFL Experience: 13

Birthdate: November 26, 1943

Birthplace: Fetsund, Norway

Residence: Prairie Village, Kansas

Now the sixth leading scorer in NFL annals, Stenerud came back from a subpar '77 campaign to register one of his better seasons last year . . . Among AFC kickers, he was fifth, tallying 85 points on 20-of-30 field goals and 25-of-26 conversions . . . This followed a 51-point output the year before . . . Stenerud's 1,167 points put him in second place among active AFC kickers; he trails Denver's Jim Turner, who is fourth alltime with 1,368 . . . The Chiefs leader in nearly every kicking category, Stenerud is behind George Blanda (2,002), Jim Bakken (1,380), Turner, Fred Cox (1,365) and Lou Groza (1,349) in NFL scoring . . . Stenerud's Chiefs records include most points in a season (129, 1968), most points after touchdown (366), most consecutive PATs (155, from 1968-73), most field goals (267), most field goals in a season (30, on two occasions), most field goals in a game (5, on three occasions), longest field goal (55 yards) and most consecutive field goals (16 in 1969) . . . Stenerud has three AFC-NFC Pro Bowl appearances to his credit, the most recent in 1976 . . . He holds the Super Bowl record for the longest field goal, 48 yards, in the Chiefs 23-7 conquest of Minnesota in Super Bowl IV . . . Also holds the Pro Bowl record of 48 yards in the 1971 contest . . . Stenerud's 48-yarder vs. Minnesota was one of three in succession which pushed the Chiefs to a 9-0 lead en route to the world championship . . . He led the AFC in scoring with 116 points in 1970 . . . His 16 consecutive field goals in '69 broke Groza's record of 12, set in 1953 . . . Stenerud's mark was equaled by Miami's Garo Yepremian last year . . . Stenerud took over the Chiefs kicking chores from Mike Mercer in 1967, then finished second in AFL scoring in 1968 and '69 . . . His five field goals in one game all came against the Buffalo Bills, twice in '69, once in '71 . . . Has booted four field goals in a game 10 times . . . Connected on his 55-yarder at Denver in 1970, with 54-yard efforts against Houston in '67 and San Francisco in '71 . . . Of Stenerud's 10 missed field goals last year, three were from 50 yards or beyond and two others fell in the 40-49 range . . . His longest field goal of the year was 47 yards; it came with three seconds to play at San Diego and enabled the Chiefs to tie the Chargers and send the contest into overtime . . . Scored 100 or more points five times in his career . . . Kicked seven points after touchdown vs. Denver in '67 and has six in three other contests . . . For his career, Stenerud has connected at a .646 clip, making good on 267 of 413 field goal tries . . . Stenerud attended Montana State on a skiing scholarship . . . He was discovered as a kicker by football coach Jim Sweeney, now at St. Louis . . . Majored in business administration . . . Active in several fund-raising and charity ventures in the Kansas City area and has served as special head coach of the Montana Special Olympics for mentally and physically handicapped youngsters . . . How Acquired: Draft (No. 1-1978)

College: Kentucky

NFL Experience: 2

Birthdate: December 5, 1955

Birthplace: Camden, New Jersey

Residence: Cherry Hill, New Jersey

The Chiefs number one draft choice last year lived up to all his advance expectations . . . He made an immediate difference in Kansas City's defense against the run, ending the year as the second-leading tackler on the club with 120, 82 by himself . . . Still also led the club in quarterback sacks with 6½ for 59 yards in losses . . . At season's end, he was named to UPI's all-rookie team . . . Still was the second player selected on the first round a year ago; the only player taken in front of him was Earl Campbell by the Houston Oilers . . . He was the Chiefs highest-ever defensive line choice since Buck Buchanan, a number one pick in 1963 . . . A consensus All-America at Kentucky in 1977, Still was the Southeastern Conference player of the year in UPI balloting . . . He was a four-year starter at defensive end for the Wildcats, who finished 10-1 his senior year but could not go to a bowl game due to NCAA probation . . . Also saw some duty on offense his last two years, lining up at tight end in short-yardage situations . . . Kentucky was unbeaten in SEC play his senior year . . . Played in the East-West Shrine Game, Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl all-star games . . . He became an immediate starter for the Chiefs, teaming with Sylvester Hicks at defensive end . . . Majored in criminology . . . Plans to make Kansas City his permanent home . . . Comes from a family of 10 children . . . Played football at Camden H.S. in Camden, N.J. . . . Single.

ROD WALTERS

Guard/Tackle Ht: 6-3 Wt: 258

How Acquired: Draft (No. 1-1976)

College: Iowa

NFL Experience: 3

Birthdate: February 27, 1954

Birthplace: Lansing, Michigan

Residence: Berkley, Michigan

A capable reserve performer in two of the three seasons he's been with Kansas City, Walters hopes for regular duty in 1979 . . . The Chiefs top choice in '76, Walters was beginning to reach the heights projected for him when he injured a knee going into his sophomore season . . . The injury required surgery that placed Walters on injured reserve for all of 1977 . . . In the two years he's been healthy, Walters has appeared in all 30 games, 14 in '76, 16 last year, opening on four occasions . . . Has played several interior line positions for the Chiefs . . . The 14th player selected in the first round of the 1976 draft, Walters started three seasons at Iowa at either the guard or tackle position . . . Played guard as a freshman and sophomore, then moved to tackle his final two college seasons . . . A third team All-America selection by Associated Press, which named him to its all-Big Ten squad as a senior . . . Walters has been a valued performer on the Chiefs specialty teams in his two pro seasons . . . Played both football and basketball at Berkley H.S. in Berkley, Mich., where he earned six varsity letters . . . Single.

WALTER WHITE

Tight End Ht: 6-3 Wt: 234

How Acquired: Waivers (from Pittsburgh)

College: Maryland

NFL Experience: 5

Birthdate: July 19, 1951

Birthplace: Charlottesville, Virginia

Residence: Kansas City, Missouri

Although the Chiefs ran the ball significantly more than they passed it a year ago, White's receiving total was only six off his 1977 performance when he led the club in that department . . . Last season he was second to Tony Reed in receiving, taking in 42 for 340 yards and a touchdown compared to 48 for 674 yards and five scores the year previous . . . With 16 touchdowns in four seasons, White is the leading active scorer (96 points) on the club save for leader Jan Stenerud . . . White opened '78 impressively with six catches for 57 yards in the season-opening victory over Cincinnati . . . He also caught six balls at Denver and had five on two other occasions . . . His sole touchdown came on a pass from Mike Livingston vs. Buffalo that helped turn back the Bills, 14-10 . . . White has averaged an even 40 receptions a year over the past four seasons . . . He divided time at his position his first two years in the NFL, but has been the regular over the past two campaigns . . . White's long reception last year was a 24-yarder vs. Denver . . . He's enjoyed considerable success against the Broncos in the past . . . In addition to a six-catch output at Mile High Stadium in '78, he had six catches in one '77 Denver game and had touchdown receptions in both '76 meetings with the Broncos . . . All this came after a spectacular debut at Denver in 1975 . . . In that game, he caught a 69-yard touchdown pass, still the longest of his career, from Livingston . . . It was also his first NFL reception, White having joined the Chiefs only a few days previous . . . He came to Kansas City the day after the roster limit had been reached in 1975 . . . A third round draft choice of Pittsburgh that year, he was waived on the final cutdown to make room for a more experienced tight end . . . Two other clubs had call on his services before the Chiefs, but both passed and Kansas City made its claim, waiving another player to make room on the opening day squad . . . White's excellent downfield speed and improving blocking make him an ideal tight end . . . While his total receptions in '78 dipped only a little from the previous year, Chiefs coaches hope he can earn more yardage per catch as his average fell to 8.1 yards a year ago . . . White had a hand in the club's longest pass play last year, but not on the receiving end . . . He unleashed a 44-yard strike to Tony Reed during the course of the Chiefs game at Oakland last year . . . That stood alone as the long until Livingston connected with MacArthur Lane on a screen pass vs. Seattle for identical yardage . . . Following his rookie season, White's teammates voted him the Mack Lee Hill Award as the outstanding first-year player on the club . . . He played one year at Mesa (Colo.) Junior College before transferring to Maryland . . . Played two seasons with the Terrapins as both a tight end and wide receiver and finished his collegiate career as the third leading receiver in school history with 61 catches for 1,036 yards, a 17.0 average and nine touchdowns . . . Set a Maryland school record in 1974 with 144 yards receiving vs. Penn State . . . Majored in physical education . . . Does numerous charitable ventures in and out of the Kansas City area during the off-season and also has been active with the Job Corps program . . . Attended Albemarle H.S. in Charlottesville, Va. . . Married this past off-season, wife Jerri.

PETE WOODS

Quarterback Ht: 6-3 Wt: 214

How Acquired: Draft (No. 4b-1978)

College: Missouri

NFL Experience: 1

Birthdate: November 29, 1955

Birthplace: University City, Missouri

Residence: Gladstone, Missouri

A knee injury pushed Woods to the sidelines last year, though he did gain practice time with the Chiefs later in the year . . . He tore cartilage in the knee during a softball game shortly after being selected by Kansas City on the fourth round of the '78 draft . . . The mishap necessitated surgery, but Woods is now 100% and ready to make a bid for the quarterback position in training camp . . . The second of two individuals picked on the fourth round, Woods completed 51 percent of his passes as a senior at Missouri despite appearing in only the equivalent of four games . . . Injuries have been a problem for Woods . . . He suffered a strained knee vs. Southern California in the '77 season opener for the Tigers, then hurt his ring finger throwing against Nebraska . . . Despite limited playing time, he was still named to the second team all-Big Eight squad . . . Woods had his best game ever as a junior . . . After being slated for redshirt duty, he opened in seven of 11 games when regular quarterback Steve Pisarkiewicz was injured . . . In his first start ever, he scored the winning two-point conversion as Missouri shocked Ohio State, 22-20, at Columbus . . . He later directed the Tigers to victories over North Carolina and Nebraska . . . Also connected on a 98-yard touchdown pass vs. the Cornhuskers . . . Woods comes from a journalistic and political family . . . His father is a copy editor for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and his mother, currently a Missouri state senator, was the first female editor of the University of Michigan student daily . . . Woods would like to pursue a radio/television career after football . . . Attended University City H.S. in University City, Mo. . . . Single.

How Acquired: Free Agent Birthdate: December 22, 1955

College: Wake Forest Birthplace: Philadelphia, Pa.

NFL Experience: 2 Residence: Philadelphia, Pa.

A 10th round draft choice of Pittsburgh in 1977, LaCrosse bids for a linebacking job with the Chiefs, who signed him as a free agent during the off-season . . . He was the lowest drafted rookie to make the Steelers in '77 and appeared in all 14 games that year, mostly on special teams . . . His recovered fumble on a punt vs. Cleveland that season helped set up a Steelers victory . . . Waived by Pittsburgh and did not play last year . . . Played defensive end at Wake Forest and started three years . . . Played in the North-South and Blue-Gray games . . . Single.

CLYDE POWERS

Safety Ht: 6-0 Wt: 195

How Acquired: Free Agent Birthdate: August 19, 1951

College: Oklahoma Birthplace: Pascagoula, Miss.

NFL Experience: 6 Residence: Nutley, N.J.

Powers joined the Chiefs as a free agent in time for the final game of last season . . . All of his previous pro career had been spent as a member of the New York Giants . . . He was the Giants fifth round draft choice in 1974 . . . Started in seven games that year, then became a regular at strong safety the following year through the '77 season . . . He was let go by the Giants in '78 and was out of football until contacted by Kansas City . . . He'll vie for the strong safety slot in training camp . . . A three-year letterman at Oklahoma, Powers won all-Big Eight honors as a senior and was chosen to play in both the Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray games . . . Intercepted eight passes in three varsity seasons for the Sooners, including two for touchdowns . . . Enjoys fishing and bowling . . . Single.

CHUCK ZAPIEC

Linebacker Ht: 6-2 Wt: 222

How Acquired: Free Agent Birthdate: July 2, 1949

College: Penn State Birthplace: Philadelphia, Pa.

NFL Experience: 1 Residence: St. Lambert, Canada

A longtime standout in the Canadian Football League, Zapiec hopes to follow in the footsteps of Zenon Andrusyshyn, who moved from the CFL to the NFL a year ago . . . Zapiec had a brief fling with the NFL in 1972 as a fourth round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys . . . Released by Dallas, he had a tryout at Miami before moving north of the border . . . Zapiec (pron: Zay-peck) began his CFL career with the Ottawa RoughRiders in '72 and played there until 1974 when he was traded to Montreal . . . He was obtained by the Alouettes by Marv Levy . . . Had a total of nine interceptions while in the CFL, including one for a touchdown his first season at Montreal . . . Zapiec played in three CFL championship games . . . One was Montreal's 41-6 rout of Edmonton in 1977, Levy's last game as Montreal head coach . . . The Alouettes released him from his contract in order that he might join the Chiefs . . . Zapiec played on several notable Penn State teams and played linebacker alongside Jack Ham in college . . . Earned bachelor of science degree in chemistry from Penn State.

BILL KENNEY

Quarterback Ht: 6-4 Wt: 210

How Acquired: Free Agent Birthdate: January 20, 1955

College: Northern Colorado Birthplace: San Francisco, Calif.

NFL Experience: 1 Residence: Boulder, Colorado

Kenney was the 12th round draft choice of the Miami Dolphins in 1977 and signed with Kansas City as a free agent over the winter . . . Considered a good prospect, he couldn't dislodge the Bob Griese-Don Storek duo with the Dolphins and was later traded to Washington in the preseason . . . With the Redskins, he found a similar predicament in the persons of Joe Theismann and Bill Kilmer . . . Kenney was the next-to-last player taken in the '78 draft . . . He began his college career at Arizona State, but transferred to Northern Colorado after a brief stop at Saddleback (Calif.) Junior College . . . As a senior, he completed 97 of 226 attempts for 1,264 yards and seven touchdowns . . . Played tight end as a junior, catching 17 passes with two for touchdowns, before substituting at quarterback . . . Majored in business administration.

FREE AGENTS

Free agents have come to the Chiefs by a variety of means. Here's a capsule look at some of them:

Kicker DAN BEAVER had tryouts with Minnesota and San Francisco after leaving Illinois in 1977 . . . Linebacker JERRY BLANTON was an 11th round draft choice of Buffalo in '78 and later played briefly with Hamilton in the CFL . . . Wide receiver DARYL BROWN's previous NFL stops were with Cleveland and New England the past two years . . . Cornerback MILTON CARTER was at Los Angeles as a free agent a year ago after playing at Cal State Fullerton, where the Rams train . . . CB HERBERT CHRISTOPHER was in the Denver camp a year ago as a free agent . . . TIM CUNNINGHAM is a cousin of the Patriots SAM; he was in Detroit's camp in '78 . . . Strong safety TONY GREEN hopes to follow older brother GARY to Kansas City; both attended Baylor and played together two seasons . . . Punter BOB GRUPP was drafted by the New York Jets on round seven in 1977. He's had two trials with the Jets and also has played for Calgary in the CFL . . . Cornerback GREG HATTON was in the Rams camp as a free agent in '78 and has also played in the Southern California semiprofessional ranks . . . Cornerback JOHN HENDERSON attended Baltimore's training camp last summer . . . Tackle MIKE HORTON's previous NFL experience includes stints with New England, Philadelphia and Washington . . . Linebacker JAMES LADD was a Buffalo free agent last year . . . Cornerback HORACE PERKINS has spent the last two years in the CFL, with Edmonton and Saskatchewan . . . Linebacker CAL PETERSON is a four-year NFL veteran. He was drafted by Dallas in 1974 and played two years with the Cowboys before going to Tampa Bay in the 1976 veteran allocation. Peterson was in the Rams training camp last summer . . . Running back ART PHILLIPS was also in a Ram uniform last preseason . . . JERRY REESE was a free agent safety at Denver last year along with defensive tackle EARNEST SALLEY . . . Running back STEVE STROPOLO was with the Houston Oilers in 1978 and also has experience at Montreal of the CFL.

GROUP SALES

The Chiefs offer a group sales program for legitimate organizations with 25 or more people. Tickets ordinarily priced at $8 are available at the special group rate of $6 per ticket for all Chiefs home games. Groups attending may sit together in a specified location and each group is recognized both on the Arrowhead scoreboard and in that game's edition of PRO! Magazine.

To get your group to a Chiefs home game this summer or fall, contact Dave Smith or Kevin Biggs in the Chiefs group sales office. The telephone number is (816) 924-9300.

THE LAST . . . AND THE FIRST

The Chiefs have had two homes during their tenure in Kansas City. The first was Municipal Stadium downtown, the club's home from 1963 through 1971. The last Chiefs game played there was the longest game in pro football history, Miami's 27-24 win over Kansas City in six quarters during the opening round of the 1971 playoffs. Arrowhead opened in 1972 and the Chiefs were victorious in the first contest played there, a 24-14 preseason triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

CHIEFS 1979 DRAFT

MIKE BELL

Round 1a MIKE BELL DE 6-4 255
 Colorado State

A consensus All-America selection, Bell is the second consecutive defensive lineman drafted in the first round by Kansas City, the Chiefs having taken Art Still a year ago . . . He was the second player drafted in '79, just after Buffalo selected Tom Cousineau of Ohio State . . . Bell suffered a knee injury in Colorado State's next-to-last game of the '78 season vs. West Virginia . . . Subsequent surgery precluded him from any postseason all-star activity, but doctors who have checked the knee believe should be totally healthy by the opening of training camp . . . Played as a defensive tackle at Colorado State, but is projected at DE in Kansas City's 3-4 alignment . . . Has a twin brother, Mark, who played as a tight end at CSU and was a fourth round selection by Seattle . . . Mike Bell was born and raised in Wichita, Kansas, where he attended Bishop Carroll H.S. and did not play football until his junior year . . . He had a totally injury-free junior year at CSU and was named Western Athletic Conference lineman of the year and collegiate athlete of the year by the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame . . . During the course of that '77 campaign, his best outing came against Arizona State, where he had 17 tackles, six for losses of 35 yards, plus three quarterback sacks and a fumble recovery . . . During the last two years, Bell rang up 26 quarterback sacks, 15 as a junior and 11 last year . . . His college coach at Colorado State was Sark Arslanian . . . Bell had been invited to participate in the Blue-Gray, Hula and Senior Bowl games, but had to defer due to the surgery . . . From a lanky 218-pound frame as a high school senior, Bell increasingly built himself to 255 during his college career . . . During his college career, Bell accounted for 284 total tackles, with an even half of them, 142, unassisted . . . Sixty-two of his tackles came behind the line of scrimmage, with 333 yards in losses . . . All told, accounted for 36 quarterback sacks over four years, 10 as a sophomore, followed by 15 and 11 . . . Recovered eight opposition fumbles, including three in '78 . . . Bell was a first team All-America selection by The Sporting News and second team All-America by both AP and UPI . . . The Football Writers Association and American Football Coaches Association also named him to their first-team squads . . . Also a unanimous all-WAC selection as a senior . . . Interest include hunting . . . Born August 30, 1957 in Wichita, Kansas.

Round 1b STEVE FULLER QB 6-4 198
 Clemson

The Chiefs chose Fuller as the 23rd selection on the first round . . . In order to obtain the additional first round choice, the Chiefs traded their second selection in the 1979 draft, plus their No. 2 pick in 1980, to the Houston Oilers . . . Fuller was the Atlantic Coast Conference player of the year two consecutive seasons—1977 and 1978 . . . He led Clemson to an 11-1 season record in '78, which included a 17-15 decision over Ohio State in the Gator Bowl . . . He was named the Gator Bowl MVP, completing nine of 20 passes for 123 yards . . . Fuller led the ACC in total offense in '78 with 2,164 yards, setting a new Clemson record . . . Passing-wise, he completed 101 of 187 attempts last year for 1,515 yards, 7 touchdowns and a .540 completion average . . . Also rushed 153 times for 649 yards and 10 TDs . . . He was a third team All-

STEVE FULLER

FRANK MANUMALEUGA

America selection by Associated Press and a first-team, unanimous selection to the all-ACC squad . . . Scouting report on Fuller indicates he's considered a good leader who assumes authority and commands respect from teammates . . . An excellent athlete and student, Fuller was a Rhodes Scholar candidate who withdrew due to his interest in pursuing a pro football career . . . Holds two other Clemson school records, 4,359 yards passing in four years and a 1,655-yard output as a junior in 1977 . . . Threw for a total of 22 touchdowns in his four years at Clemson and ran for 22 more . . . His .518 pass completion record for his career is the best of any four-year back in Clemson history . . . Earned honorable mention All-America honors from The Sporting News . . . Was named to the All-Academic All-America Team in '78 . . . Fuller finished sixth in 1978 Heisman Trophy balloting . . . Owns a career grade point average of 3.93 as a pre-law history major . . . Has indicated a possible desire to pursue a law degree once he's begun his pro football days . . . In terms of total offense, Fuller accounted for 6,096 yards, another school record . . . He accounted for 124 yards or more of total offense for 22 consecutive games, with an alltime best of 275 yards vs. Georgia Tech in 1976 . . . Named a National Football Foundation scholar-athlete in 1978 and was the recipient of a $1500 postgraduate scholarship from the NCAA . . . Clemson's 10-1 regular season record was the school's best in 30 years . . . The Tigers ACC championship was the first since 1967 . . . In a graduating class of 826 at Spartanburg (S.C.) High School, Fuller was the top-ranked student and Valedictorian . . . Single . . . Born January 5, 1957 in Enid, Oklahoma.

Round 7 KEN KREMER DE 6-4½ 250
Ball State

The Chiefs seventh round selection and the first player taken the second day of the draft, Kremer started four seasons at Ball State . . . He was the Mid-American Conference player of the year for 1978 and was named to the all-MAC squad as both a junior and senior . . . A tri-captain of the Cardinals squad last season, Kremer was his team's most valuable player a season ago . . . He performed on a Ball State team that won the MAC title with an 8-0 record en route to a 10-1 mark for the year . . . A Division I school, Ball State was first in scoring defense, permitting an average of only 7.5 points a game . . . The Cards defense allowed an average of 212.1 yards per contest, good for third in Division I play, and they were fifth in defense against the run, allowing 102.2 yards a game . . . Kremer concluded his senior year with 98 tackles, including 14 for losses and eight quarterback sacks . . . He was the MAC player of the week on two occasions, vs. Appalachian State in 1977 and against Northern Illinois, in '78, both games coming on the road . . . As a junior, he was credited with 87 tackles and two fumble recoveries . . . Married, wife Patricia . . . Born July 16, 1957 in Hammond, Indiana.

Round 8a MIKE WILLIAMS RB 6-3 222
New Mexico

The first of two Kansas City selections in round eight, Williams led the Western Athletic Conference in rushing the last two seasons . . . Has gained over 1,000 yards rushing three of four varsity seasons . . . As a junior in 1977, Williams carried a school record 265 times for 1,096 yards . . . Came back his senior campaign for 1,014 yards on 212 carries . . . Williams was named to the all-WAC squad as a sophomore, junior and senior and was a unanimous selection in 1977 . . . He was named the WAC offensive player of the week in '78 following his performance against archrival New Mexico State . . . Earned AP honorable mention All-America notice . . . His 3,861 yards rushing for a career are both the New Mexico and WAC record . . . Williams passed former Chief Woody Green as the conference's leading ball-carrier . . . Rushed for 173 yards and scored three touchdowns vs. New Mexico State in '78 . . . Career best is 236 yards, a New Mexico record, on 47 carries, a WAC record, vs. Texas El Paso in 1977 . . . Williams led his team in rushing all four seasons of his varsity career . . . He missed the final two games of the '77 season due to a knee injury that required surgery . . . Born October 14, 1957 in New Kingston, Pennsylvania.

Willis hauled in a total of 81 receptions over four years at Alcorn, starting all four seasons . . . Fell off to only 16 receptions as a senior, due in part to his team's running the ball more than it passed in '78 . . . Willis's best year was as a junior, 41 receptions for 764 yards and four touchdowns . . . That placed him second in the Southwestern Athletic Conference among receivers and helped him earn All-America Division II honors . . . He was named to the all-SWAC squad three seasons . . . In addition to vying for a wide receiver's slot with the Chiefs, could also be employed in a return capacity . . . Born November 24, 1956 in Bessemer, Alabama.

CHIEFS CHAMPIONSHIP REVIEW

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME DALLAS at HOUSTON December 23, 1962

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's Texans/Chiefs.

Following second place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West championship in 1962. Dallas finished 11-3, a full four games in front, and was matched with the Houston Oilers, also 11-3, who had won the AFL title in 1960 and '61 over the Los Angeles, then San Diego Chargers.

The Texans, paced by a pair of touchdowns from Abner Haynes, took a 17-0 halftime advantage. Haynes scored first on a 28-yard pass from Len Dawson and then on a two-yard run after Tommy Brooker had given Dallas a 3-0 first-quarter advantage with a 16-yard field goal.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda, then a "young" 35-year-old, passed 15 yards to Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick to the clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, Dallas defensive end Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned to midfield. Dawson then passed to Jack Spikes for 10 yards, Spikes, the game's most valuable player, ran for 19 and the Texans were in field goal range. At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Miami Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in 1971.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

KANSAS CITY at BUFFALO

January 1, 1967

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills.

The game, played in frigid, subzero temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff. Jerrel Wilson recovered a Bills fumble on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, Len Dawson passed 29 yards to Fred Arbanas for the first touchdown and a 7-0 Kansas City lead.

Buffalo, though, tied the game near the end of the opening period when Jack Kemp hit Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play. Few thought it would be the Bills final score of the day.

The Chiefs defense stiffened and Dawson led the offense to 10 second-quarter points. Otis Taylor caught a 29-yard touchdown pass and Mike Mercer added a 32-yard field goal, aided by a 72-yard pass interception by Johnny Robinson.

Mike Garrett then applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs by scoring on runs of one and 18 yards. Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

KANSAS CITY vs GREEN BAY

January 15, 1967

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers.

Vince Lombardi's Packers, one of the great pro football teams of all time, won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. But the Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring when Bart Starr passed 37 yards to Max McGee, McGee making a remarkable one-handed catch for the touchdown. Len Dawson tied the game for the Chiefs when he passed to Curtis McClinton for a second period touchdown. The Packers then went back on top, 14-7, before Mike Mercer kicked a 31-yard field goal just before the half ended.

The Chiefs momentum carried over into the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play, one that doomed the underdog Chiefs, unfolded when Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned all the way to the Chiefs 5-yard line, where Elijah Pitts ran for a third Green Bay touchdown and an insurmountable 21-10 lead.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME KANSAS CITY at OAKLAND January 4, 1970

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the only three-time AFL champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played their Western Division rivals, the Oakland Raiders, for the league's last title. Oakland, which had won the AFL West and held a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, went down to a 17-7 defeat, the first of several AFL/AFC title game defeats that have bedeviled the Raiders during the past decade.

Ironically, Kansas City's win in the Oakland Coliseum was its last to date. And the Raiders have fared little better in the confines of Municipal and then Arrowhead Stadium.

The contest, unlike other Raiders-Chiefs matchups, was marked by turnovers. The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece, Oakland's on a three-yard run by Charlie Smith, Kansas City responding with a one-yard plunge by Wendell Hayes after Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to Otis Taylor and 41 yards to Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, George Blanda twice missed field goal attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City mounted a drive from its own 2-yard line, the field position a result of a fumble which luckily was recovered before it bounded into the end zone. Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass and run play. Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass in the left flat and then scored the go-ahead touchdown five plays later.

At this point, the game became a defensive struggle. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of Aaron Brown, Buck Buchanan, Curley Culp and Jerry Mays, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders quarterback Daryle Lamonica. But the turnovers which would plague both teams were only beginning.

In the fourth quarter, turnovers gave Oakland the football three times in Kansas City territory. Three times the Chiefs responded with interceptions, one each by Jim Marsalis, Jim Kearney and Emmitt Thomas. Thomas's steal was his second of the day and covered 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line. Jan Stenerud's field goal provided a 17-7 lead and a return to the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL IV KANSAS CITY vs MINNESOTA January 11, 1970

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the world championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the New York Jets and Oakland in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the outstanding team in the American Football League which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in 1970, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession.

The Chiefs took an early lead when Jan Stenerud kicked a 48-yard first quarter field goal. Stenerud's kick remains a Super Bowl record. He then followed with field goals of 32 and 25 yards for a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when the Vikings Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Len Dawson handed off to Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the 4. Three plays later Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for five yards and a touchdown. The Chiefs held a 16-0 halftime lead, stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Otis Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season.

Dawson hit Taylor on a short hitch pattern, but when Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, highstepping his way to a 46-yard touchdown. After three quarters, the Chiefs again held a 16-point lead.

As was so often the case in 1969, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. Middle linebacker Willie Lanier picked off a Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. In the game's closing minutes, Emmitt Thomas intercepted his third pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

The American Football League's 10-year history had come to an end with the Kansas City Chiefs its most successful team. The 1970s would usher in a new era for the Chiefs, an era that would produce noted changes as the club sought to regain its position as world champion.

CHIEFS CLUB

Chiefs Official Booster Organization

JIM PENDLETON

The Chiefs Club is the official booster organization for the Kansas City Chiefs and has long been regarded as one of the most active support groups in the National Football League.

With its official membership approaching 2500 members, the Chiefs Club is active in ticket drives, special events, charter trips to away games and numerous civic and charitable functions in the greater Kansas City area.

Jim Pendleton, a long time member of the Chiefs Club and one of its more active participants, is the president of the Chiefs Club for the second year in 1979. Pendleton, a local partner in Arthur Andersen & Co., becomes only the second president in the history of the Chiefs Club, succeeding Ray Evans.

Evans, who becomes a member of the Chiefs Club advisory board, helped form the booster organization when Lamar Hunt moved his American Football League Dallas Texans franchise to Kansas City in 1963. With Evans' leadership as president the Chiefs Club was formed by a group of civic-minded Kansas Citians with one major goal:

"Making Kansas City the strongest franchise in professional football and the best professional sports city in the United States."

The Chiefs Club has grown considerably in size and stature since those early years. In addition to continually being active in Chiefs season ticket drives and booster trips for Chiefs away games, the Chiefs Club members have initiated dinner and luncheon meetings and rallies, family functions with Chiefs coaches and players and the season-opening annual Kickoff Luncheon, which attracts some 1,000 pro football fans who salute the current Chiefs team. The club's biggest project each year is to sponsor the now nationally recognized "101 Banquet," Kansas City's annual salute to the men of professional football. This prestigious post-season pro football awards banquet honors the outstanding offensive and defensive players and coaches-of-the-year in the AFC and NFC plus salutes the Chiefs Mack Lee Hill Award winner and the team's new inductee into the Kansas City Chiefs Hall of Fame.

101 AWARDS

Kansas City's annual salute to professional football — the 101 Banquet — was founded to honor outstanding achievements in the sport. The event is sponsored by the Committee of One Hundred One as an activity of the Chiefs Club, official booster organization of the Kansas City Chiefs.

Each year the Chiefs Club invites one hundred one civic-minded, sports-loving Kansas Citians to participate in sponsorship. It is their dedication that makes possible the 101 Trophy, the 101 Banquet and the annual awards ceremony.

MACK LEE HILL AWARD

DON PARRISH

An unlikely yet popular choice for the 13th Mack Lee Hill Award was Chiefs nose tackle Don Parrish. His selection fit the unlikely description only in that he wasn't a Chief when the club gathered for training camp a year ago.

Parrish, instead, was with the Atlanta Falcons, who had drafted him on the 12th round in 1977. He missed all of that season with an injury, then was the last player cut by the Falcons. The Chiefs had already played a regular season game when Parrish signed as a free agent. But it did not take him a great deal of time to make a name for himself. He became the third member of an all-rookie defensive line, teaming with first and second draft choices Art Still and Sylvester Hicks. Indicative of the young defensive Chiefs progress was the fact the club allowed an average of 62.5 yards less on the ground than in the previous year.

Parrish was a member of the 1976 national championship team at the University of Pittsburgh. Reporting to the Falcons a year later, he sat out the season with an ankle injury. From his nose tackle position in 1978, Parrish was fifth on the squad in tackles with 68 solo efforts and 23 assists. He also accounted for two quarterback sacks and recovered an opposition fumble.

A native of Tallahassee, Florida, Parrish was an overwhelming choice for the Mack Lee Hill Award, being named on over two-thirds of the ballots cast by veteran Chiefs players.

Each year since 1966, the Chiefs players have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965 and was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Mack Lee Hill, the award is given annually to the Chiefs rookie who, as the inscription on the trophy reads—"best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill . . . the man with the giant heart and quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs players look for a rookie who has displayed the spirit and attitude of the late Mack Lee Hill.

The Mack Lee Hill Award is presented annually at the 101 Banquet, Kansas City's annual salute to the men of professional football. Parrish received his award last February 23 from retired Chiefs tackle Jim Tyrer.

CHIEFS MEDIA

BROADCAST TEAM — The Chiefs announce team for 1979 is Wayne Larrivee (left) and Bill Grigsby (foreground). Larrivee will handle the play-by-play with Grigsby providing the color commentary. As in each of the Chiefs 17 seasons in Kansas City, the broadcasts will be carried by 81/KCMO and the Chiefs six-state regional network. Larrivee, a New England native, begins his second year as the Chiefs radio voice. He previously broadcast University of Iowa football. Grigsby returns this year to the radio booth. A popular figure on the Kansas City scene, Grigsby's broadcast credits include the Chiefs plus major league baseball.
